Acknowledgements

We would like to thank everyone, who have reached out to us, and have expressed your sympathy and condolences at such a difficult time in our lives. Your words, your prayers, and support have been received with the utmost gratitude. We never realized how many lives our mother had touched. Reading and hearing about them made us feel so proud of her. Please continue pray for us as we try and find peace in such a trying time.

Obituary

Sylvia L. Sykes-Frazer, 55, departed this life on Friday, January 27, 2017 at the Monmouth Medical Southern Campus in Lakewood, New Jersey. She was born on January 10, 1962 in Lakewood, New Jersey to Sylvester Sykes and Lois White.

She received her education in the Lakewood, New Jersey school system. She went on to work as a Certified Nurse Aide for the Summit Nursing Home in Lakewood, and continued to work several other Nurse Aide cases throughout the community until she was no longer able to work. She attended several churches throughout her being, and became a member of the Sixth Street Baptist Church in November of 2015.

Sylvia is predeceased by her father Sylvester, and sister Deborah Sykes.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, her mother Lois White; her three daughters, LaWanda, LaDonna, and Leiada Frazer. One step daughter, Tyshon Terry, and one God-daughter, Alexandria Walker. One grandson, Liam Woodard; her ex-husband and father of her children, Minister Lenwood Frazer Jr. Three brothers David Sykes, Sylvester Sykes, and John Gordon. Three sisters Rachel, LaTearia, and Ramona Sykes. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins. and other relatives. She also leaves to an abundance of friends, many memories.

Love Lives On

Those we love are never really lost to us; we feel them in so many special ways. Through friends they always cared about and dreams they left behind, in beauty that they added to our days. In words of wisdom we still carry with us and memories that never will be gone. Those we love are never really lost to us; for everywhere their special love lives on.
