

Miss Me But
LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the Sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a Little - But Not too Long
And not with your head bowel low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss Me But Let Me Go
For this is a journey that we all must Take;
And each must go alone
It's part of the Master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Reflections of Her Life

HENRIETTA PRINGLE

*“To everything there is a season; and a time to every purpose under the heaven...For to me live is Christ and to die is gain.”
(Ecclesiastical 3:1, Philippians 1:21)*

The life of Ms. Henrietta “Rette” Pringle began August 15, 1960 in Eastover, SC, the beloved daughter of the late Henry Pringle and Martha LaBrew Pringle. She departed this life on Friday, January 16, 2026, at Lexington Medical Center, in West Columbia, South Carolina.

“Ritta” as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was educated in public schools of Richland County where she graduated from Lower Richland High School. Henrietta attended Job Corps in Early Child Development in Kentucky. She worked at Benedict College and Fort Jackson in catering department. She enjoyed cooking, arts and crafts, writing short stories and poetry as well as crocheting. She volunteered with Richland School District in the Library and office while her children were in school.

She attended Saint Phillip A.M.E. and Mt. Zion Baptist church during her early years. Henrietta was a free spirit with the love of music, people, dance, conversations and enjoyed being out with friends and family. Though she is no longer physically with us, she left a legacy of love to all those who loved and knew her.

In addition to her parent, she was preceded in death by her five brothers Henry Lee Pringle, Jr, William Pringle, James Pringle, Eddie Pringle and Larry Pringle.

Those who will forever cherish fond and precious memories of Henrietta are her two daughters, Latoya Sade Pringle of Dalzell, SC, Crystal Pringle of Nashville, Tennessee; a son John Rodriguez Robinson of Columbia, SC, two sister-in-laws Sandra Pringle of Eastover, SC and Ora Pringle of Columbia, SC; two grands Amira Hope Cantey Robinson and Tyshawn Buckmon Robinson of Columbia, SC; Uncle Leroy LaBrew of North Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews and other loving relatives and dear friends, all of whom will dearly miss her.
