

September twenty-second, two thousand and twenty-three
 God said it was time for Mama Margie to be with me
 So he came in the morning and took her hand
 Leading her home to the promise land
 The Candy Lady the kids would say
 She'd have sweets for them every day
 They'd run to her place and knock on the door
 Miss Candy Lady can we "buy" some more
 Mama Margie's not suffering or in any pain
 For her beautiful wings she did gain
 She's probably "selling" candy as we speak
 And God shaking his head from being weak
 Her body may be gone
 But her spirit will live on
 For even though we are apart
 Mama Margie will always be in our heart

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul.
 He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
 Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me
 in the presence of mine enemies;
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
 And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Margie Louise (Stewart) Conrad was born September 29, 1940, to the union of Charles E. Stewart and Dorothy Barnes Stewart in Covington, KY. Margie gained her wings on Friday, September 22, 2023, surrounded by her loving family.

Margie cleaned the offices of judges and lawyers. She also worked at Shelby's Restaurant on Fourth Street. She was a jack of all trades. She would repair just about anything. Her main thing to do was splicing extension or lamp cords. She did not wait for "any" man to repair things, she did them herself. Margie was a go getter.

Margie had loud popping fingers. Her favorite hangout spot was The Corner Pocket. The "older" people know exactly why.

Margie enjoyed working puzzle books, scratching off her bingo lottery tickets and watching the Game Show Network. She would sit for hours and hours working word search book. She also loved to cook, especially her "secret" ingredient brownies, that many people could not get enough of. She was called the "Candy Lady" by many children in the neighborhood, we all know why. She enjoyed doing what she did. Most people called her "Mama." She was well loved.

Marge was my ride or die sister. We shared a lot over the years. We were always there for each other through thick and thin. Love ya, Lois Margie, my wonderful sister that I'm going to miss dearly, love always, your little brother, Kent.

Margie, you may be gone in body, but you will always be with us in heart and spirit. Rest in peace, Love and prayers be with you. Charles (Brother), Merle, Marlon, Steven and Family.

Margie was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Dorothy Stewart; sons, Reginald Stewart, Robinson, and Eric Conrad; sister, Charlene Gillespie; grandson, Rodriguez Walker and other family members and friends.

Margie is survived by her daughters, Marilynn, Frances and Robin Conrad, Cynthia LeMarbe, Donna (William) Frazier; sons, Rodney, Donald, and Alfred Conrad; sister, Delores Duncan; brothers, Charles, Ronald (Gatewood), and Kent Stewart; 50 grandchildren; several great and great-great grandchildren, and other family members and friends.

Mama is already missed! Rest on your throne, our Queen. We love you!

John 14:1-3

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."
