A LIFE REMEMBERED WITH LOVE: AMMIE JEAN JOHNSON

I have competed well;
I have finished the race. I have kept the faith.
From now on the crown of holiness awaits me,
which the Lord, the just one,
will award to me on that final day and not only to me
but to all who have longed to see His face.

Ammie Jean Williams Johnson was born on June 14, 1934, in Ingles, Arkansas to the parentage of Qunnie Williams and Lula (Williams) Atkins.

Ammie accepted Christ at an early age at Gates Chapel A.M.E. Church in Crossett, Arkansas.

Ammie grew up in Ingles and Crossett; and received her formal education at T.W. Daniels School. From an early age, she carried a spirit that was both generous and kind. Ammie possessed a deep, heartwarming compassion for others, with a heart that naturally leaned toward helping those in need. She was the kind of person who would give the shirt off her back or spend her last dollar just to bring a smile to someone's face.

Ammie met and married Herman Johnson. She was a wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, great-great grandmother, sister and aunt who carried herself with wisdom, guidance, and quiet strength. She embodied unconditional love and patience in their purest forms - graceful, dignified, and endlessly compassionate. Ammie was a warm and welcoming soul who loved her family deeply and found true joy in spending time with them. She enjoyed fishing and hunting, pastimes she cherished and shared with her siblings. She also found great happiness in cooking for her family, especially preparing her favorite fish dishes. She will be deeply missed, forever loved, and always remembered by all whose lives she touched.

Ammie departed this earthly life on April 6, 2026, at the age of 91 years old. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Herman Johnson; a son, Herman Johnson, Jr.; and five brothers.

Ammie will forever be loved and remembered by her three devoted daughters, Lula M. Smith, Debbie J. Price and Virginia R. Johnson; twelve grandchildren; eighteen great grandchildren and twenty-four great-great grandchildren.

Also left behind to cherish her loving memory are her sisters, Ethel Williams, Fannie Miles (Carl), Patricia Adams all of Crossett, Arkansas and Susan Gulley (Rodney) of Dallas, Texas; brothers, Alma Williams (Janice) and John Williams both of Crossett, Arkansas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Ammie's faith in God carried her through life with strength and grace, and her family finds comfort in knowing she is now at peace in His presence. Her legacy will live on through the wisdom she shared, the love she poured into others, and the precious memories that will forever live in our hearts.

Her Legacy

“The greatest legacy one can pass on to one's children and grandchildren is not money... but rather a legacy of character and faith.”

Her Love

“Wherever a beautiful soul has been, there is a trail of beautiful memories. She walked in beauty and left a trail of love.”

Family Tributes of Love

LEGACY OF LOVE & FAITH

Thank you, God, for giving us the most priceless of all treasures,
A mother who taught us to walk in your heavenly measures.
She has left this earthly home, a part of your great plan,
Though it is hard to say goodbye, we know she's in your hand.
Her legacy lives on in us, through all that she has taught,
A quiet, trusting, loving faith, exactly as she wrought.
She is smiling down from heaven, knowing she did good,
Resting now with Jesus, just as she always should.

We Love You Always, Mother - Lula, Debbie and Virginia

HER SMILE

Though her smile is gone forever
and her hand we cannot touch
We still have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
Her memory is now our keepsake
Which with we'll never part.
God has her in his keeping
We have her in our hearts.

With Love – Your Grandchildren

HER JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

Don't think of Ammie as gone away, her journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets; this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost and Ammie was loved so much.

Love Always - Ethel, Fannie, Patricia, Susan, Alma and John

I Have My Reward

To all my loved ones
My family, my friends
The road I have traveled
Has come to an end.

I started on
This journey one day.
The Lord was with me
Every step of the way.
Some days I'd get tired
And so very weak
But I thank the Lord
For taking care of me

I kept the faith
I am ready to enter
The pearly white gates.

As I came
To the end of the road
God placed on my shoulders
A beautiful white robe.

I began to smile
And look all around
He placed on my head
A golden crown.

To all my loved ones
Everything is all right
My name is written
In the Lamb's Book of Life.
