

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss

Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow;

I wish you sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I've savored much

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts and share with me;

God wanted me now, He set me free.

Psalm 1:1-6

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither.

Obituary

Aaron Michael Brown

Was born on February 2, 1969, in Chicago, Illinois, and was lovingly raised by his mother and father, Nancy and Wesley Hampton. As the oldest of four siblings, he led with his heart and fiercely protected his family.

Aaron graduated from CVS (Chicago Vocational School). He made Cincinnati his home in 1991, where he built a life full of love and unforgettable memories. Aaron took great pride in his work—he worked in construction for many years, but his true passion was truck driving, traveling countless miles across the country. Of all the places he visited, Orlando, Florida, held a special place in his heart.

He was known for driving with two feet—one on the gas and one on the brake—giving everyone who rode with him an unforgettable (and slightly terrifying) experience. He proudly claimed to be OCD: everything had its place, and don't you dare mess up the lines in his carpet. He took pride in keeping things neat and clean, just the way he liked it.

Aaron always found his way back home to the family he cherished. Family meant everything to him, and his happiest moments were those filled with laughter and stories shared with loved ones.

Aaron was fond of his children, but his grandchildren were his true pride and joy.

Aaron accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. He lived with deep love for the Lord, who was his guiding light throughout life.

Aaron's respectful demeanor and magnetic charm made him easy to love and hard to forget. He had a way of making everyone feel comfortable, welcomed, and appreciated.

On July 26, 2025, Aaron was called home to be with the Lord. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving parents, Nancy and Wesley Hampton. He is lovingly remembered by:

His ex-wife, Pamela Brown, with whom he shared three children: son James Howard, daughter Areion Brown, and son Aaron Brown Jr., as well as his son Timothy Bowles.

His sisters: Sharon Brown and Akisha (William) Shelton.

His brother, Tommy Brown, who preceded him in death; his brother-cousin, David Croff; and his loving fiancée, Roslyn Wilson; and a host of beloved grandchildren, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts, cousins, and devoted friends.

Fill not your heart with
PAIN AND SORROW,
 But remember me in every tomorrow...
 Remember the JOY,
 the LAUGHTER,
 the smiles,
 I've only gone to rest a little while.
 Although my leaving causes pain & grief
 My going has eased my hurt
 And given me relief.
 So dry your eyes and remember me,
 Not as I am now, but as I used to be.
 Because I will
REMEMBER YOU ALL
 And look on with a smile.
 Understand in your hearts
 I've only gone to rest a little while
