

Words of Appreciation

We offer our heartfelt thanks for your prayer and support during our time of grief. Your shared memories, comforting condolences, and gestures of love are truly appreciated.

~The Family~

From your wife you'll truly be missed. You were the best man to ever enter into my life. I love you and will always love you. You were and will always be the King of my life.

From your daughter Katrina, I am going to miss you bad. Look out from Heaven. You'll be the best angel from Heaven we got. For Tina, Katrina, and your grandkids. Look out for us ok. We love you from California to Texas and back.

Obituary for A Beloved Husband and Soulmate

Stanley Eugene Rosborough "Po Sam" was born on January 17, 1953 and home going July 12, 2025.

Mr. Rosborough was born to Fannie Mae Rosborough. He was born and raised in Easton, TX. He attended Longview High School.

At an early age he became a faithful member to Union Grove First Baptist Church. He stayed there for many, many years. He later joined Union Church of Christ. Where he remained a member until his home going.

In 2021, He met and married Tina Johnson who was beside him until the very end.

Stanley loved horses and playing dominoes in Easton under the tree there was never a dull moment around Stanley. He could make you laugh at the drop of a dime. He was the kind of man that would give you the shirt off his back. He was a caring devoted, loving friend, and person until the end. He received the nickname "Po Sam" from his grandmother.

His Legacy will live on through all those he inspired and loved. He was a proud, protective, and devoted husband, brother and father.

He is survived by his wife Tina Johnson Rosborough his daughter Trina Lincoln (James); his siblings Janeene Coleman Ray, David (Dulley) Coleman, and Anthony Coleman; one aunt Melva Rosborough; eight grandkids, six great-grandkids, and one great-great grandchild; an extended host of friends and family. He is preceded in death by his parents Johnnie Mae Rosborough Coleman and Yancy (YD) Coleman; grandparents Edmand and Fannie Mae Rosborough; one daughter LaShun Bell; one brother Wilfred Rosborough (Agnus).
