Sandra “Googy” Anita Davis, 82, of Morehead City, North Carolina, passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 4, 2026, at Carteret Health Care.

Sandra was born on September 20, 1944, in Morehead City, North Carolina, to the late Melvin and Lula Davis. She was raised in the close-knit community of Marshallberg. Sandra was a proud teacher who dedicated more than 29 years of her life to educating young people. She touched the lives of countless students throughout the eastern part of Carteret County. During her years at East Carteret, she had the opportunity to take students on educational trips abroad, including memorable journeys to Europe, Africa, Italy, and Spain.

Sandra had a wonderful mind for trivia and could always surprise those around her with something interesting she knew. She had a wonderful sense of humor and knew how to make people laugh. She loved Elvis and enjoyed listening to his music. She also enjoyed having breakfast at the Captain’s Table, one of her favorite places to eat.

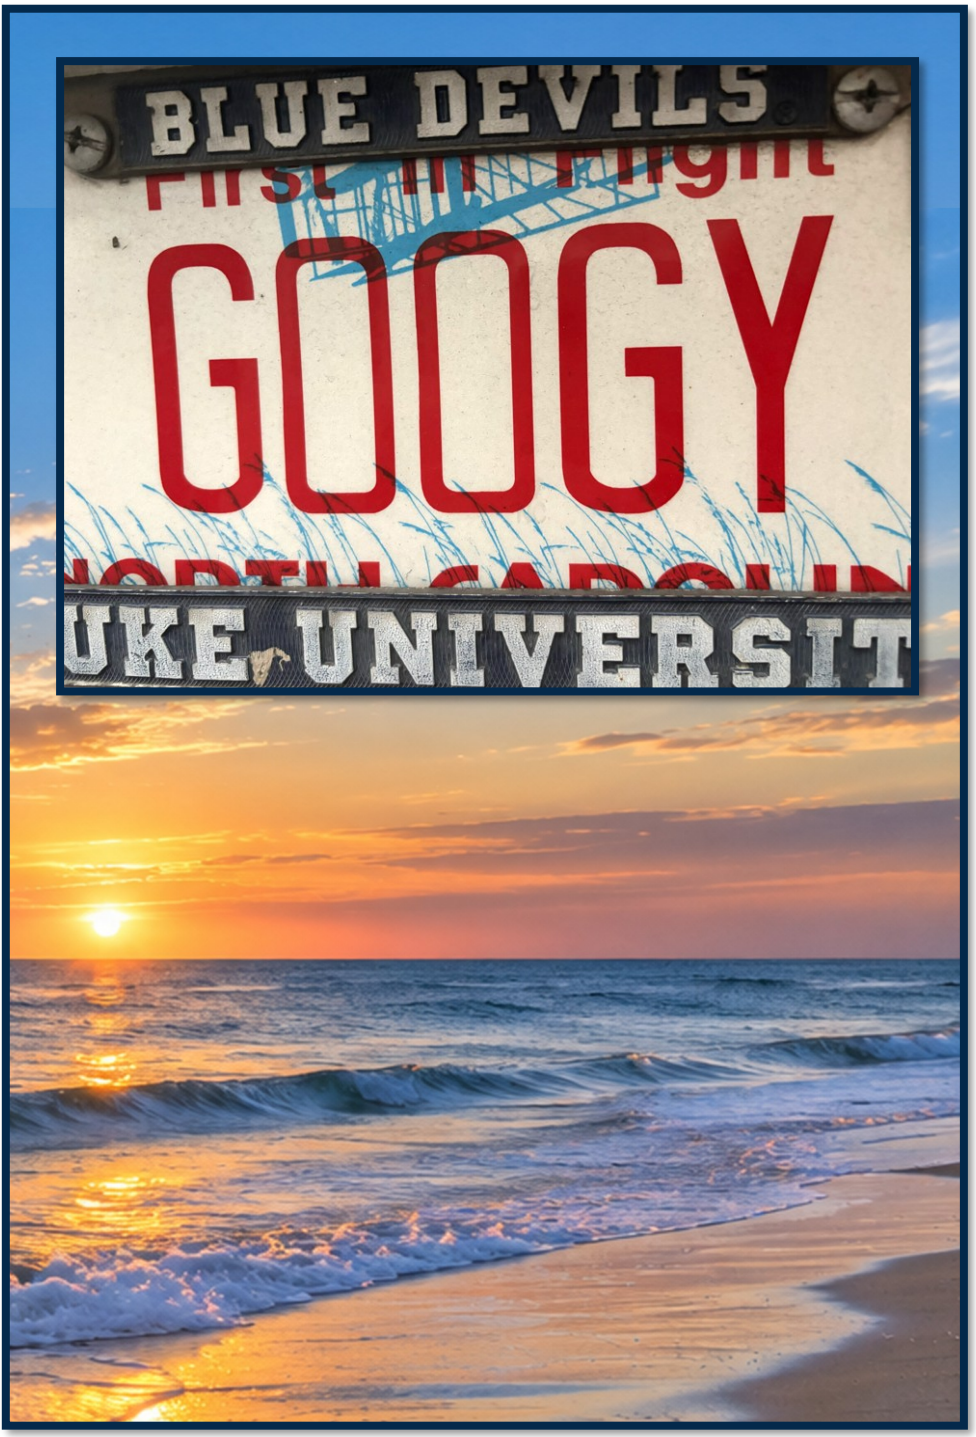

Though she was a private person, those who knew her best understood how deeply she loved her family and friends. Her nieces and nephews held a particularly special place in her heart, and she was always there when they needed her. Sandra especially enjoyed when her sister Melva would come to visit and take her out to enjoy the day. She will be deeply missed by her precious family and dear friends.

Those remaining to cherish her memory are her sisters, Deborah Davis of Marshallberg, NC, and Melva Davis of Marshallberg, NC; 5 nieces and nephews; 6 great nieces and nephews; 7 great- great nieces and nephews; and her sister’s dog, Max, who held a special place in her heart.

In addition to her parents, Sandra was preceded in death by her brother, Larry Roberts Davis Sr.
