

REMEMBER ME

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.

I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved, The times we cried,
The times we fought, The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Alongside his eight children: Kiera Gregory, Daziré Wooden-Moorer, Carl Moorer, Jr., Paul Darby, Jr., Yasmin Cody, Yemaya Moorer, Yemir Moorer, and Yemoni Moorer; and grandchildren: Curt'ier Martin, Zechariah Townes, Trevaughn Guerrant, Jr. and Andrew Moore, Jr.; his niece: Tevonna King and nephews: Dallas Moorer, Demetreus Moorer-Saunders, Sherman Moorer and Dempsey Calhoun, Jr. who also survive him.

Smoke collected his GED, Welding and Sports Therapy certifications while incarcerated. He came home spent his career as not only a fitness coach, welder and mechanic but an huge influence in the community especially amongst the children. Coaching for The Midwest Ravens a little league football team and he was an entrepreneur owning his own LLC (CM Services) which was his proudest career achievement.

He is preceded in death by his father, Charlie Moorer; nephew: Demarco Moorer and his childhood friend, Frederick Hughley.

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN
Unknown

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.
