

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Matthew 5:4

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Obituary

Otis Freeman, born on July 31, 1936, in Atlanta, Georgia, passed away peacefully on July 15, 2024, at the age of 87. Otis was a beloved husband, father, brother, uncle, grandparent, and friend who touched the lives of many with his kindness, wisdom, and unwavering love.

Born to Ethel and Odell Freeman, Otis grew up with strong family values that he carried throughout his life. During his childhood, Otis, along with his parents, relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio. He graduated from the Cincinnati Public School System and soon after joined the military, where he served his country with pride and was honorably discharged.

Following his military service, Otis traveled the world, gaining invaluable experiences and making lasting memories before eventually settling down with his beloved wife, Mildred Watson.

Otis leaves behind his devoted wife, Mildred, who stood by his side for many cherished years. He was a proud and loving father to his two sons, Eric and Kerry, step-brother Carl Lewis. Additionally, he was a caring stepfather to Constance, Darryl, Terry, Robin, Holly, Vincent, and Chris, whom he loved and supported as his own. Otis also shared a special relationship with his two nephews, Greg and Mike, who held a unique and cherished place in his heart.

He is also preceded in death by his former wife, Alice Freeman, brother Curtis Freeman, grandson, Melvin Williams, and great-grandson, Jalen Watson.

Otis leaves behind grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren who brought him immense joy and pride. Otis lived a full and meaningful life, leaving behind a legacy of love and warmth that will continue to inspire those who knew him.

He will be deeply missed but forever remembered in the hearts of his family and friends.

A celebration of Otis's life will be held at Walker Funeral Home, 2625 Gilbert Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45206.

May his soul rest in peace.

I was supposed to spend the rest of my life with you.

And then I realized you spent
The rest of your life with me.

I smiled because I know you
Loved me till the day you went Away, and will keep loving me till
The day We're together again.

Lamentations 3:23

But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion
according to the multitude of his mercies.
