

Acknowledgements and Special Thank You

We would like to acknowledge everyone who has been more than a "customer" to Mr. Harrie, but like family in his eyes. For the calls and meals that fed his soul, for the prayers and visits. We thank the team of Vitas for their care and support and a special heartfelt thank you to Monica Dickerson-Brazzle and Carman Thomas for the love and care they both provided unconditionally.

Obituary

Harrie Keith, Jr. was born on May 10, 1958, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the union of Katie E. Keith and Harrie Keith, Sr. He was the second oldest of his mother's six children. He was preceded in death by his parents, Katie E. and Harrie Sr., and his brother, James Williams. Harrie accepted Christ early in life at Truth Missionary Baptist Church under the tutelage of Rev. Robert Lee Mitchell. He often shared fond stories of his mother giving him and his siblings money for offering, and how they would use it to buy penny candy, always making sure to save some change for the collection plate! While at Truth Missionary Baptist, Harrie attended Sunday class and sang in the choir. He and his family also attended Rescue Temple C.O.G.I.C. Harrie rededicated his life to Christ in 2024, under Pastor L. Gaines, at First Baptist of Hartwell.

In 1976, Harrie graduated from Aiken High School, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He spent 15 years working as a resident manager before venturing into business as an entrepreneur, where he touched the lives of many people that weren't just customers to him. He made sure to take care of the seniors, the widows, and to educate the young men to give them a craft if that was what they sought. He took great pride in his craft and worked until he could no longer physically carry his tools.

Harrie leaves to cherish his memory his younger brother, Jerry Keith; nieces, Octavia Williams and Olivia Williams; nephew James Williams; dedicated friends and employers, Keith Eve and Brad Casebolt; all of his loving customers and his special friend, Janice Huddins-Taylor.
