

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Today, we come to celebrate the homegoing for Leonard B. Cathey. He was born in Newark, New Jersey on April 28, 1950 to the late Church and Mary Cathey. Leonard was educated in the Newark school system until he graduated from Central High School in 1968.

After high school, he attended Essex County College, earning an Associate degree in Social work. He got a job with the city as a councilor with children for several years. At this time he also became a Muslim at Temple # 3.

Leonard relocated to Cincinnati in 1978, making this his final residence. He had several jobs as counseling and became an Entrepreneur, a little shop on Vine Street, where he sold clothes and Jewelry. Here he met his late wife, Sherrie Cathey; they were married in 1987. Unfortunately it ended in divorce.

His life was not always filled with fun and good days but he approached it with the philosophy that life was precious and honored it with Allah's purpose. Leonard loved people and places. He was a long time resident at Eden Park Apartments. There he met his best friend, Jackie Knott. One he cherished which he lost due to illness some five years ago.

Leonard passed away suddenly on March 1, 2026, in an accidental death, and was predeceased by Father, Church Cathey, mother, Mary Cathey, sister, Carolyn Cathey, and loved one Jackie Knott. He leaves to cherish his memory, son Al-Kashif Marshall, brother, Philip Cathey, sister, Gail Cathey-McCoy, nieces, Fatimah Cathey, Furaha Cathey, Tuwisha Rogers, nephew, Tariq Rogers, and great nephew Ibnkalif Cathey as well as a host of family and friends.

Matthew 5:4

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted

Psalm 34:18

The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
