

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Ella Mae Sprinkle

Ella Mae Sprinkle, 97, of Sedalia, Missouri, passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 6, 2024, at Boone Hospital Center in Columbia, MO. Born on July 8, 1927, in Flint, Michigan, she was the beloved daughter of Emil and Helen (Rugen) Lange, who both preceded her in death.

On December 21, 1958, Mae married her soulmate, Donald Sprinkle, in Sedalia. They shared a loving partnership until his passing on July 5, 2020.

A devoted homemaker, Mae found joy in raising her four children and cherishing every moment spent with her grandchildren. Her vibrant spirit shone through in her love for dancing, bowling, and family trips to Las Vegas and Branson. Mae cherished family vacations, camping adventures, and was an avid St. Louis Cardinals fan, never missing a game. She found delight in classic television sitcoms and game shows, particularly The Golden Girls, M.A.S.H., The Price Is Right, and Wheel of Fortune. In her leisure, she enjoyed playing cards, word searches, and solitaire, always eager for a friendly challenge.

Mae is survived by her children: Paula Cook of Sedalia, Kenneth Sprinkle (Brenda) of Sedalia, and Donna Sprinkle of Sedalia; six grandchildren: Michelle Reid (Ryan), Katy McNelly, Angie Waldrep, Larry Sprinkle (Stephanie), Sarah Stubblefield (David), and Christopher Klein; sixteen great-grandchildren; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband and parents, Mae was preceded in death by her son, Paul Sprinkle; granddaughter, Pam Sprinkle; and siblings Emil, Kenny, Cecil, Carl Lange, Helen Lutgen, and Malley Lange.
