Until We meet again

I don't even know where to start words may never be able to express this pain I feel in my heart. I go from talking to you every day to not ever being able to hear your voice or see your face. Wanting to call you on my late nights when I'm feeling dark. Forever an empty space that will remain in my heart. Oh!!! how much I miss you so dearly. The women you raised me to be forever strong you will always be apart of me. Prepared me for every battle there was to face except the one that comes with no longer seeing your face. You kept me happy calm and humble even in your absence. Now there is nothing left to fill that void. Knowing that your finally free and can finally breathe makes me feel some type of relief UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN. You no longer have to suffer and feel any pain, your home with your loved ones you've been missing and there you will remain. God please watch over my angel until my time comes to meet her again. My heart aches without you but I know your in good hands.

Forever and always watching over me, the little ones and our family. I promise to continue to make you proud no matter the obstacles that are to come. I Love you Grandmom Until we meet again

Love Always, Your Heart (Nijah)

LIFE STORY

Earnestine Pelzer was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on August 2, 1948. She was the youngest of seven children born to Hilderbrand Sr. and Jessie Mae Pelzer. Earnestine was born after the untimely accidental death of her father in Orangeburg, South Carolina. Her birth signaled the beginning of her family's life in the city of Philadelphia where her mother moved immediately after her husband's untimely passing. For her entire life, Earnestine was affectionately referred to as "Tiny" by family and dear friends.

Tiny attended schools in the Philadelphia School District. As a youth, she attended Morning Star Holiness Church. Tiny was a very outgoing person. She loved people and looked forward to engaging in laughter and conversation with everyone. Tiny was not an avid sports fan, but she loved to bowl. Tiny was an avid Bowler and loved the Philadelphia Eagles. She bowled in several leagues at the now defunct Stenton and Washington Bowling Lanes. A lover of music, Tiny especially enjoyed "Reasons" by Earth, Wind and Fire. Her children and grandchildren knew every word of "Reasons" because Tiny taught them the words and often had them participating in a "Sing Along." Tiny loved to play cards and was a frequent visitor to Atlantic City. Her grandchildren looked forward to their summer vacations with her in Wildwood, New Jersey. Also, as much as family and friends, tried to convince Tiny to lay off seafood, clusters of crabs legs in particular, she always looked forward to eating them. Many of us look forward to the holidays, especially Thanksgiving and Christmas, but Tiny cherished and always looked forward to celebrating her birthday as a holiday.

Earnestine was predeceased by her parents, her six older siblings, her son, Kyle Pelzer and her grandson, Dominique Pelzer.

Although faced with several medical challenges and surviving cancer on two occasions, Tiny's sudden passing on Thursday, October 23rd was unexpected. Almighty God in His infinite wisdom called our beloved Tiny home and she entered into eternal rest. She leaves to cherish her memory, her four children, April Kimberly, Kevin Dwayne, George Kelly, Shavita Janel, 9 grandchildren, Kandi Pelzer, Kyle Pelzer (Charna), Donshae Pelzer (Talibah) Ashad McNeil (Corey) Nyfese Pelzer, Dequan Pelzer, Cierra Pelzer, Shaniyah Hubert, Amiyah Pelzer, 18 great grandchildren, her sister—in-law, Gloria Pelzer, a god daughter, Tamirah Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews, great nephews, great nieces, cousins, as well as other relatives, the Hearts That Matter Most Adult Day Services, neighbors, and dear friends. Earnestine, better known as Tiny will be sorely missed by all whose heart she touched.

Saying Goodbye to My Mommy

How do you say goodbye to the foundation that built the structure for you to stand strong and grow together?
Moving through life was always real for me and my Mother
Of all the good times we had I never thought of the day we would say Goodbye
My love for you will stay everlasting and effortless
My feelings for all the struggles that we pushed through together made me the woman I am today
I am forever grateful that you have left your children and grandchildren with each other to love on one another in your absence
And you'll now spend the rest of time with the Ones we have lost
SO, MOMMY I DON'T SAY GOODBYE
I'LL SAY MAY YOU BASK IN HEAVENLY SERENITY
UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN
LOVE ALWAYS

Your Baby Girl "Muffin"

Just for Momma

Every child claims
To have the best Momma in the world!
But no one has a Momma like me.
A down brown soulful Mom.
No matter my trials or tribulations
Momma you have always been there
To pick me up...to cheer me on.
I LOVE YOU MOMMA.
For the special woman you are.
A long time ago, you told me
To keep it straight with you and you would fight with me to the end!
Since that very day, I've never been alone.
I LOVE YOU MOMMA.
I wish my mere words could shine upon you
Brighter than the sun bringing sweet memories
Of all our wonderful precious times together.
I LOVE YOU MOMMA.
Yes, many kids claim
To have the best Momma in the world
But no one has a Momma like me.

Kevin Pelzer
