Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul:
He leads me in the paths
of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for you are with me;
Your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies:
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

In Loving Memory of Quade Moise Thunder Ballantyne

August 8, 1991—January 3, 2022

Quade Moise Thunder Ballantyne was born Thursday, August 8, 1991 in Thompson, Manitoba. He grew up in Pukatawagan, MB where he resided most of his life.

He loved his hometown. Quade would go fishing. He enjoyed the nature, it brought him peace and he loved spending time with his bros. His house in Chinatown was the hangout for them where they enjoyed everyone's quality time.

Quade was the most humble person. He showed kindness out of his heart. He respected everyone around him. He was also very helpful.

He was known as "Q", bubboys, and Ninja. He loved his friends and family so much especially his little boy Quade Jr.

Quade moved away from Pukatawagan after he graduated. He lived with his mother Carmen Castel and brothers in Melfort, SK.

Every morning it was his daily routine to get up and make him and his mother coffee. It broke his mother's heart not seeing him early mornings and not having coffee already made.

Quade touched a lot of hearts. He was a very kind man and would always give advice. He always made sure to check on his sisters. He went to visit them both daily just to make sure everything was okay with them and his nieces and nephews.

It saddened his sisters Shana Ballantyne and Demsey Castel not seeing him come around, hearing his knock at the door.

Quade will be loved and missed by many.

Quade started his journey to the spirit world Monday, January 3rd, 2022.
