

God gave us memories
so that we might hold onto what the heart cannot forget.

Pallbearers

Wardell "John" Allen | Elijah Black, Jr.
Darius Morris | Frank Woods, Jr.
Steve White | Quinton Roberts

Honorary Pallbearers

Richard Black | Jeff White
Charles S. White | Duane Griffin
Glenn Hicks | Lester Allen
Mark Denning, Sr. | Craig White
Jerome Smith | Jonathan Allen

Flower Bearers

Friends of the Family

Interment

DeepDale Memorial Gardens
4108 Old Lansing Road
Lansing, Michigan 48917

Acknowledgement

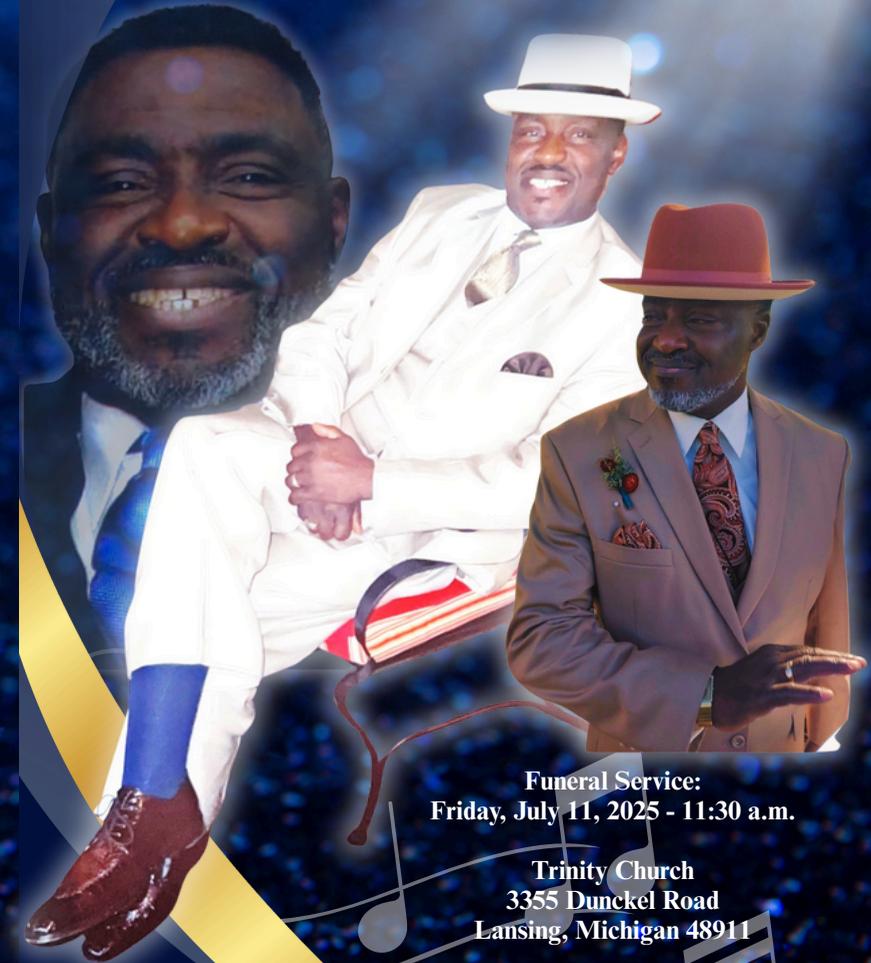

We are most grateful for the gift of friends like you, who have been so kind and thoughtful during these hours of sorrow. Your prayers, visits, calls, flowers and every act of kindness have given us strength and inspiration to face this hour. May God continue to bless each of you. The family extends special thanks to University of Michigan Health-Sparrow, Medilodge of Okemos, Fresenius Medical Care, Capitol Lodge #8 of Free and Accepted Masons PHA and those who have supported George and our family.

The Family of George Allen Harris, Jr.

Celebrating the Life of

Mr. George Allen Harris, Jr.
Sunrise: September 16, 1965 - Sunset: June 30, 2025

Funeral Service:
Friday, July 11, 2025 - 11:30 a.m.

Trinity Church
3355 Duncel Road
Lansing, Michigan 48911

Reverend Charles Magee, Officiating
Reverend Dr. Frank Woods, Jr., Eulogist
Reverend Dr. Marvin Williams, Host Pastor

Paradise Funeral Chapel
& Arrangement Services

1107 East Miller Road
Lansing, Michigan 48911
Phone (517) 272-1035 / Fax (517) 272-1048
pflansing@gmail.com
Kevin C. Behnke, Manager
Ivan E. Phillips, President & Owner

Order of Service

Prelude Family
 Processional Mrs. Carissa Roberts
 Scripture Old & New Testament
 Prayer Reverend Charles Magee
 Musical Selection "His Eye is On The Sparrow" Minister Sharon Lawrence Taylor Poem Mr. Wardell "John" Allen
 Acknowledgements of Cards, Condolences & Obituary Mr. Quinton Roberts
 Expressions (Please limit to 2 minutes) Family & Friends
 Musical Selection "Precious Lord" Minister Sharon Lawrence Taylor
 Eulogy Reverend Dr. Frank Woods, Jr., Pastor

Committal
 Benediction
 Recessional

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Life Well Lived

A life well-lived is a precious gift of hope and strength and grace from someone who has made our world a brighter, better place. It's filled with moments sweet and sad, with smiles and sometimes tears, with friendships formed and good times shared and laughter through the years. A life well-lived is a legacy of joy and pride and pleasure. A loving, lasting memory our grateful hearts will treasure.

Obituary

Mr. George Allen Harris, Jr., passed away Monday, June 30, 2025, at the University of Michigan Health-Sparrow, in Lansing, Michigan. Age 59 years. He was born on Thursday, September 16, 1965, in Rockford, Illinois. The son of Barbara Black-Cummins and George Allen Harris, Sr.

George of Lansing, Michigan, was a devoted husband of 35 years to Undrala White Harris, a proud father to their two daughters, Camille and Raquel, and a loving grandfather to Calia. He was also a cherished son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend to many. A natural leader with a brilliant mind and a heart as big as his smile, George was known for his confidence, commitment, and unwavering faith. He was a God-fearing man whose spirituality guided his actions and uplifted those around him. With a sharp sense of humor and a deep love for history, science fiction — especially Star Trek, and westerns, George could engage anyone in thoughtful conversation or have them laughing in no time. A lover of all types of music, he was a crooner at heart and a graceful slow dancer, often filling the room with song or charm. Handsome and fashion-forward, George had a big personality and a bigger heart. He enjoyed sports and cheered loudest for his teams — Go Blue! Above all, he brought determination to everything he did—especially his work and his role as a husband and father. He often reminded those around him never to say “never,” living proof that strength and faith can move mountains. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and lessons that will continue to guide those who knew him.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories, his wife, Undrala Harris; two daughters, Raquel Harris and Camille Harris; granddaughter, Calia Horn; mother, Barbara Black (Thomas) Cummins; three sisters, Carissa (Quinton) Roberts, Allyssa Narvaez, and Allesha Morris; brother, Glenn Hicks; from his siblings, he leaves behind four nieces, Cabria Harris, Nova Roberts, Sierra Narvaez and Kennedy Ferguson; nephew, Darius (Brooklyn) Morris; great niece, Harper Jackson, and great nephew, Omar Nasir Saleem; aunts, Lorraine Bradley and Johnnie Mae Black; uncle, Richard (Linda) Black; too many cousins to name; mother-in-law, Lillian White; six sisters-in-law, Selena (Duane) Griffin, Charla White, Sersena White, Melba White, and Lexava (Jerome) Smith, and Leabra White; four brothers-in-law, Jeff (Sarina) White, Craig White, Charles S. (Michelle) White, and Steve White; many other relatives and friends including special friends, Wardell “John” (Regina) Allen and Frank (Rhoda) Woods, Jr.

He was preceded in death by his father; grandparents, James and Lucille Black.

