

Expressions of Gratitude

We are most grateful for the gift of friends like you. You have been so kind and thoughtful during our hours of darkness and sorrow.

Your prayers, visits, calls, cards and every act of kindness, has helped to strengthen, inspire and encourage us for whatever the days ahead may bring. May GOD forever bless and keep each of you in HIS care!

"Let Me Give"

I do not know how long I'll live
But while I live, Lord, let me give
Some comfort to someone in need
By smile or nod-kind word or deed
And let me do whatever I can
To ease things for my fellow man.

I want nothing more than to do my part,
To "lift" a tired or weary heart,
To change folks frowns to smiles again.
Then I will not have lived in vain,
And I'll not care how long I'll live
If I can give-and-give-and-give!

His Story...

Marquise James Williams was born on February 9, 1998, to Sherrie Ardley and Maurice Williams. Marquise attended the public school system in Jacksonville, Florida and received his GED while in Job Corps. He worked in food services for many years and for various businesses. Marquise had a genuine love for all people. He was affectionately known as "Poppa" by many family members. He had a zest for life, a love for stylish footwear and was truly devoted to those he called friend.

He was preceded in death by his mother: Sherrie; his maternal grandmother: Mrs. Ida; a devoted maternal grandfather: Mr. Ned Ardley; paternal great grandmother: Mrs. Ruby P. Jenkins, whom he helped to care for during her illness; and his paternal grandfather: James Williams.

Marquise leaves to cherish his memories, father: Maurice Sr. (Lucania); sister: Tyresha Gordon (Devonta, Sr.); brother: Maurice Jr.; grandmother: Sandra Williams; great aunt: Alice Hughes (Joseph); nephews: Diondre, Devon, Trevon, Devonta, Jr.; nieces: Mahogany and Mariyah Gordan, and Marley Williams; cousins: Za'mya Williams and Ja'kyah Ardley; and a devoted friend: Lyseo Odom.

*There is a time to be born and a time to rest.
Between the two, a life beautifully lived.*

Recessional

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

St. John 11:25-26
