*A Letter From Heaven
When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
Filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.*

Sandra Lee Pringle passed away February 2, 2024 at Sanford Medical Center in Chamberlain after battling cancer since 2009.

Sandra Lee Youngbluth was born in Wagner, SD on December 31, 1945 to Emil “Mike” and Frances (Davis) Youngbluth. She attended grade school and high school in Wagner, SD.

She was united in marriage to Dan Dominiack in Chamberlain and they later divorced. In 1999, Sandi met Tom Pringle and they were married in 2001 and became a blended family.

Sandi had many jobs. She worked at the Community Bailey Hospital, Thiels Collision Center, owned and operated Sandi’s Attic, and also worked at Charly’s Restaurant. She loved meeting new people so Charly’s was a perfect fit. She loved spending time with her grandchildren, gardening, fishing, and playing pool. She and Tom shared a love of motorcycle riding, and spent many days riding through the Black Hills, going on Poker Runs, or just riding around the area. They loved spending time together.

Sandi is survived by her six children Michael Dominiack, Nichole (Neal) Cheeseman, Jessica (Brian) Paulin, Tim (Carson) Pringle, and Jeffery (Chelsey) Pringle; 13 grandchildren; and two great grandchildren; a sister Ona (Harry) Ingalls; two brothers-in-law Chuck (Mary Kay) Pringle and Ron Maxwell.

Weeping Willow

*Do not stand at my grace and weep,
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning’s hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there.*
