

For My Dad,

To be heard without saying a word,
To be hugged when I'm blue

To be understood when I'm confused, so rare was a Dad like you

Your loving smile and infectious laugh, made all the difference in my day

Your endless wisdom and timeless advice, always helped me find my way

In you there was no equal, you were in a class all your own

And because of all the love you gave me, I'll never be alone

It's an honor to have known you, to have shared stories and dreams

I'll always think of you smiling, no matter how tough life seems

You're still special beyond compare, your heart so kind and true

I wish everyone on earth, could have a Dad like you

From your ever loving daughter

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Trumaine Orvell
LEWIS

Sunrise: February 17, 1975 - Sunset: September 4, 2025

Celebrating The Life & Legacy

Trumaine Orvell Lewis, affectionately known as "True", was born on February 17, 1975, in Jacksonville, Florida to the late Jerome King and Brenda Ann Lewis. He was educated at Lee High School, and with his charismatic personality and knack for sales, he started his own business. True had a smile that could light up a room always with an infectious laugh behind it. True was a loving, spirited, determined man that carved his own path in life. He truly was Mr. Make It Happen.

True departed this life and went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, September 4, 2025. He was preceded in death by three beautiful women that helped raised him: Johnnie Mae Lewis, Sheila King and Catherine Ross; his brothers: Muhammed "Tray" Shakir, Jerome King Jr, and Eric King; and sister: Vicky King.

He leaves to cherish his memory his lovely daughter: Brenda Lewis; son: Glen Hayes; grandchildren: Christina Jackson, Vaughn McDaniel, and Yyaughn McDaniel; his brothers: Ladell Heath, Thalmadge Billingslea, Jerome King, and Daniel King; his sisters: Penny Mote and Sheila Tillman (Nathan); special friend: Angela Myers; favorite cousin: Robin Grant; uncles, aunts, and a host of other relatives and friends.
