

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

A LIFE REMEMBERED

LOYD H.
GUDENSCHWAGER

NOVEMBER 3, 1932
DECEMBER 4, 2025

Loyd H. Gudenschwager

Loyd Henry Gudenschwager, 93, of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Thursday, December 4, 2025, at The Living Center in Marshall, MO. He was born on November 3, 1932, in Reedsburg, WI, the son of Walter and Louise Gudenschwager, who preceded him in death.

On February 19, 1955, in Sedalia, MO, Loyd was united in marriage to Dorothy Wagner, who preceded him in death on January 19, 2017.

Loyd was a devoted member of St. Vincent de Paul Parish, Sacred Heart Church. He worked for many years as the head of maintenance for the Sedalia 200 School District, where he was known for his dedication, work ethic, and friendly nature. Loyd proudly served his country in the United States Air Force and was stationed at Whiteman Air Force Base.

A true outdoorsman, Loyd loved fishing and hunting. He enjoyed dancing at the Old Smiths Country Music Barn and was always ready for a good game of Rummy, one he rarely lost. Above all, Loyd cherished time spent with his beloved wife, family, and friends.

Loyd is survived by one son, Richard Gudenschwager and his wife, Laura, of Sedalia; two grandsons, Craig Allen Harvey and Brent Dean Gudenschwager; one great-granddaughter, Brynley Harvey; a sister, Lois Hinze; and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to his wife and parents, Loyd was preceded in death by a brother, Norman Gudenschwager, and two sisters, Wilma Ennis and Jeanette Manville.
