

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Eloise Barron Young

Eloise Young, 99, of Sedalia, MO, passed away peacefully on Saturday, December 28, 2024, at Sylvia G. Thompson Residence Center in Sedalia, MO. She was born on June 9, 1925, in Wortham, TX, the daughter of Paul Jefferson Barron and Jessie Pauline (Weems) Barron, who preceded her in death.

On December 24, 1941, in Lovington, NM, she was united in marriage to Thomas Charles Young, who preceded her in death on April 22, 1992.

Ellie worked as the Head Baker at the School Cafeteria for 17 years in Texas. After retirement, she began painting country crafts and many oil paintings. She was an active member of her church in Texas and a prayer warrior who loved to quote scripture from the King James Version of the Bible.

In 1999, she moved to Missouri from Texas, where she loved the beauty of the trees, lakes, and fall foliage. She enjoyed visiting Branson and going to the shows, sometimes up to six shows in one weekend! Her trip of a lifetime was traveling to Israel with her brother Jiggs, to explore the Holy Land.

Ellie enjoyed playing dominoes, dining out with the girls, and keeping a sharp mind by working on crossword puzzles. She was an active member of Calvary Baptist Church, working in the kitchen and helping with the decorations for many years. Ellie was the most beautiful Christian lady who loved the Lord. She wanted most to “hear the trumpets sound, see the rapture, and the return of Jesus”. It is beautiful to know she is with him now.

Survivors include daughter, Pat (Young) Love, of Sedalia; a son, Tom Young of Hillsboro, TX; five grandchildren, Paul (Sandy), Kevin (Heather), Missy, Lori, and Tonya; eleven great grandchildren, Londyn (Mike), Libby, Pauly, Emma (Derek), Hayden, Parker (Jayden), Fisher, Conner, Collin, Brylie (Clark), and Peyton; five great-great-grandchildren; and three nephews.

In addition to her husband and parents, Eloise was preceded in death by a brother and sister-in-law Darrell "Jiggs" and Rosemary Barron; son-in-law, Howard Love; and a grandson-in-law, Rich Gunnar.
