

In Loving Memory of
Isaak Matthew Hamilton

February 28, 2001 ~ May 16, 2026

Funeral Service

Thursday, May 28, 2026 ▪ 11:00AM

Eastgate Funeral Service ▪ 3117 E Century Ave

Bismarck, North Dakota

Private Interment

Mandan Union Cemetery

Mandan, North Dakota

Prelude	"Hallelujah"
Processional	"Amazing Grace"	Native American Flute
Words of Welcome
Opening Prayer
Song	"Angels Cry Too"
Scripture Readings		Psalms 25:1-7 Matthew 5:3-11
Song	"Heaven by Noon"
Message		Pastor Mark Narum
Tribute Video
Remembrances
Closing Prayer
Recessional Hymn	"Go Rest High on That Mountain"

Officiant Pastor Mark Narum

Readers Fontez Newman and Bella Ereth

Casket Bearers Jason Hamilton Jr., Mason LaVallie, Trey Erickson, Isaiah Williams, Anthony Tran, and Jimmy Mote "Jimbo" Jr.

Honorary Casket Bearers Kyanna Hamilton, Mekyna Weldon, Addyson Weldon, Mitchell Hogue, Mike Hogue, Teila Lezard, Emmitt Jackson, Da'Shawn Jackson, McKenzie Jackson, and Marcus LaVallie

Ushers Zachery "Phatz" Jones and Fontez Newman Jr.

Tribute Video

Isaak Matthew Hamilton (Hubáhu Owáhjkne, "Lightning Wings"), age 25, left his time on earth on May 16, 2026.

Born to Jessica and Jason Hamilton Sr. on Feb. 28, 2001, he definitely had an impact from the start as he was a surprise. Isaak was the 3rd born of three children, and he and his sister Kyanna and brother Jason Jr. would form a bond that no matter what would never break.

Isaak spent most of his school years in Mandan, ND except for a brief time where he attended school in Wolf Point, MT where he would play basketball, but he was quickly drawn back to Mandan where he would graduate in the year 2019.

Isaak had a deep love for music and would even after high school tell you his favorite class was choir. He loved making music and videos with his family and in the last year would spend some of his nights doing karaoke.

Isaak loved playing softball and was proud to be a member of the OG Vets team. He also enjoyed being on a basketball league, tried his hand a time or two at golfing, but his real passion was fishing. If he could be at the water he would be and even panned himself the "Shoreline Assassin" as he reeled in some big one's right from shore.

If he wasn't fishing you could find him gaming online with his brother and other family members and he yelled at his brother more than once for not getting the person that downed him in the game.

At the age of 19, Isaak and two of his cousins, he would call them brothers, packed up in the wee hours of the morning and moved to Denver, CO. He loved being there and would tell you those were some of the happiest years of his life. He often talked about moving back.

Isaak loved fiercely and loved hard and had so many people that loved him the same way. He was his sister's biggest supporter through her struggles, cared deeply for his brother, and loved his mom so profoundly. He gave the best hugs and never shied away from a kiss on the cheek from mom.

This loss cuts deep for all who knew him and loved him.

Isaak is survived by his mother, Jessica and stepfather, Chad Weldon; father, Jason and stepmother, Holly Hamilton; sister, Kyanna (Leighton Fox) Hamilton; brother, Jason Jr. (Dahlia) Hamilton; sister Teila (Robbie) Lezard; stepsisters, Mekyna and Addyson Weldon; stepsister, McKenzie Jackson; stepbrothers, Da'Shawn and Emmitt Jackson; grandparents, Lonnie (Joe) Greybear; grandparents, Gary (LeAnn) Quinlen; grandmother, Jessica Mason; grandmother, Linda Weldon; uncles, Lawrence, Terrance (Theresa), and Dewayne (Dani) Hamilton, Justin (Angela) Quinlen, Wade Pittenger; aunt, Deanne (Zackery "Phatz") Jones, and Lori Vondal; close friend and brother Mason Lavallie; numerous cousins and nephews Waylon, Liam, and Ryker.

Preceded by grandmother, Barbara Hamilton; grandfather, Larry Hamilton; great-grandparents, Leonard and Dottie Bailey; great-grandparents, Jim and June Quinlen; Aunt, Darcie Madry and grandfather figure, Gene Hogue.

If Tears Could Build

*A stairway and memories a lane,
I'd walk right up to heaven
and bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*

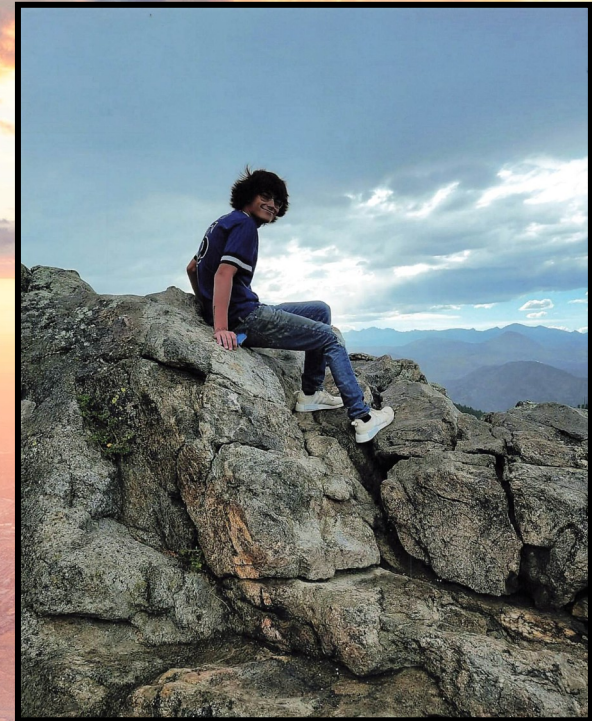

*Our hearts still ache in sadness
and secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose someone like you,
No one can ever know.
But now, we know you want us to mourn
for you no more,*

*To remember all the happy times
and the ones life has in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten,
We pledge to you today,
A hallowed place within our hearts is where you'll always stay.*

In Loving Memory of Isaak Matthew Hamilton

February 28, 2001 - May 16, 2026

*Hubáhu Ówáhjkne
"Lightning Wings"*