Life Reflections

Lula Conyers Washington, widow of Deacon Junior Albert Washington, was born on June 20, 1935 in Paxville, SC to the late James Conyers and Hessie Belser Conyers. She departed this life on Thursday, April 2, 2026 at her residence after an extended illness.

Lula was a member of Salem Missionary Baptist Church of Sumter; she remained a faithful and dedicated member of Salem all her adult life, until her illness. Lula was a member of the deaconess Ministry, the Senior Choir, Usher Board and the Senior Missionary. Lula loved her activities as a member of the following organizations: The Willing Workers Club and the Golden Heart Association. Lula loved people and enjoyed numerous opportunities to get involved in her community.

Lula received her formal education at Paxville Elementary School and her high school education at the Sumter School District night school. She did domestic work for both Dr. Arland Compton, Sr. and Dr. Eugene Dickerson for many years.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by a son, Thomas James Washington; a granddaughter, Devonna Washington; three brothers: Isaac Conyers, Raleigh Conyers, and Nathan Conyers; three sisters: Thelma Conyers Jones, Ada Conyers Rivers (Ida Mae) and Anna Conyers Govan.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory, two loving and devoted sons, Albert Washington of the home, who was her primary caregiver, and Arthur Lee (Linda) Washington of Sumter; three sisters-in-law: Lynda Jackson-Conyers of Milwaukee, WI, Frances Mack and Naomi White of Sumter; granddaughter, Satonya Gibbs and great-grandson, Marquell Washington, who were reared in her home; other grandchildren include: Tiffany Washington, Kedric Parson, Terrance (Lisa) Thomas, Andre' (Herlonda) Washington and Ahmad Washington; she also had 18 additional great grandchildren; and two great-great grandchildren; a special nephew, Joseph (Bertha) Dinkins and a special niece, Deloris (Barry) Anderson, who was also one of her caregivers, and her adopted daughter; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and special friends whom she loved very much, Rosa Scott, Katherine Logan of Sumter and Della Alexander of Atlanta, GA. Lula loved people, immediate and extended family, as well as each of her friends.
