

'I'm Free'

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of day If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch If my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief Lift up your heart, rejoice with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Obituary

Willie Frank Williams Jr. was born on February 6, 1943, in Ocilla, Georgia, but spent the majority of his life in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was the son of the late Irean White Williams and Willie Frank Williams Sr.

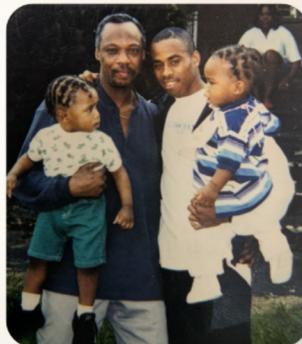

Affectionately known as “Frankie” by his family, he grew up in the West End and attended Taft High School, where he graduated. He was an exceptional football player, and many believed he would pursue college football on scholarship. However, Frankie chose to serve his country by joining the U.S. Army.

Frankie worked for Stroh’s Beer Company until its closure in 1985. He then worked for U.S. Shoes (Nine West) for fifteen years, followed by employment at the Hillman Group factory until his retirement.

Frankie was known for his kind spirit and great sense of humor. He loved cracking jokes, laughing, and spending time with family. He also enjoyed watching football and classic cowboy shows.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his younger brother, Timothy Williams; and two brothers-in-law, Charles Bobo and Eugene White.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Lolo Williams; his children—son Rodney McCree (Leslie) and daughter Shay McCree; five stepchildren; fourteen grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Annie Bobo and Pearlean White; one brother, William “Billy” Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
