

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Beverly Ann Smith was born to the union of Kenneth T. Smith and Daisy L. Smith (nee Scott) on May 21, 1960, in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was preceded in death by both her parents, Ma and Diddy, five siblings—Anna (Fletcher), Sharon, Ronald, Kevin, Robert, and one cousin David Scott (Angela).

Beverly attended Garfield Elementary, Heinold Jr., and Hughes Sr. High School. Although she did not complete high school, Beverly proceeded to get her G.E.D., allowing her to attend and graduate from Southern Ohio College in Nursing.

She went on to work with disabled children for a short while before moving on to a position at Bethesda Hospital. From there she worked as an ACC Clerk at Good Samaritan Hospital. Beverly then went on to work at the IRS in Kentucky until she decided to retire.

She was a generous person, always giving to others and offering to help people in any way she could. She enjoyed music, playing cards, food, and just having a fun time in general. Of the many things Beverly liked to do, shopping and being on the computer is what she loved most. Beverly endured different illnesses until she fell asleep in death, where she is now at peace.

Beverly leaves to cherish her memory, her beloved daughter LaKisha (Troy Jones), companion Robert Emerson, siblings Kenneth (Love), Lavaun (Lamor—preceded in death), Brenda, Danny (Sharon (preceded in death), Jeanette Norman, Michael, Katherine, Karen, and Calvin Scott (cousin), Edwina (sister-in-law); as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Revelation 21: 4-6

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.
