

For Those I Love, For Those Who Love Me...

When I am gone, release me, let me go -
I have so many things to say and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love you can only guess,
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown.
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near -
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome Home."

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Kalup Wade McGhee was born on November 5, 1991 in Chamberlain, SD to Kelly Wayne McGhee Sr. and Susan Elaine Isburg.

Kalup Wade spent a lot of time in the Lower Brule, Fort Thompson, and Crow Creek areas and grew up in Highmore, SD with Donny Olson, his Aunt Vicki Isburg, and his favorite sister Lynda Jean. Kalup Wade attended Head Start in Fort Thompson and Kindergarten in the Highmore School District. Kalup Wade attended the rest of his schooling in Lower Brule.

Kalup acquired the nickname “Stubby” from his friends and family. He was always helping Donny in whatever he was doing. Whether it was fixing fence or working on a vehicle or tractor. He also loved to ride his bike with his sister, Lynda. While he was in Lower Brule, Stubby was a little cowboy.

Wherever you saw a group of kids, you knew Kalup was with them, too. There was even one time where he had his parents hauling his little horse in the backseat of their car.

Kalup Wade passed away on May 8, 2021 at Sanford Medical Center in Chamberlain, SD at the age of 29 years. Kalup will be forever remembered by his mother Susie and father Kelly, big brother Kelly Jr., and his Aunt Vicki, his cousins Tori, Tia, Taylor, Barbara, Whitney, and Kylie and many many other relatives and friends.

Kalup is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Wayne McGhee, Terry Jandreau, and great-grandmother Hilda Long Crow all on his father’s side; his cousin Lynda Grey Owl, grandparents Robert and Jaunita Isburg, great-grandparents Herman and Victoria Isburg and Harvey and Aldena Langdeau all on his mother’s side.
