OBITUARY

"Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life." - Revelation 2:10

In the early morning hours on the Sunday, January 5, 2025, Tissier C. Moaney of Easton, Maryland, peacefully took her final flight to her Father's everlasting arms at the Talbot Hospice Foundation. Tissier Wilson Cooper Moaney was born at Wye House Farm in Easton, Maryland, on June 3, 1932, to the late Sara Elizabeth Cooper (née Wilson) and the late George Henry Cooper in Easton, Maryland. She was educated in Baltimore City and Talbot County school systems. During her years in Baltimore, she was scholastically and musically gifted and was selected to receive a grant for piano lessons at the Peabody Conservatory of Music. She graduated from the Robert Russa Moton High School in Easton, Maryland, and matriculated for two years at Maryland Teachers College at Bowie before starting a family. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Richard Allen Moaney, Sr., and enjoyed their life together with their four children. They enjoyed singing together and were devoted to their family life. "Tish," "Ms. Tish," or "Aunt Tee," as she was affectionately known to so many, enjoyed get-togethers as the youngest of eight children. She enjoyed playing cards with them along with family trips. Indoor gardening brought joy to her and red roses were her favorite flower. Her love of children was prevalent in her domestic occupation working for several area families, including Dr. Harry and Mrs. Walsh and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pinkard, where she helped to rear children. Her work with children also included caring for children at Kiddie College in Easton.

In her devout service to the Lord and as a member of the Deshields United Methodist Church, she began her music leadership as a pianist and ministry of music at the age of fourteen and went on to serve as a music leader for St. Matthew United Methodist and lastly Waters United Methodist churches. She also lent her talents to several gospel music groups, including the Royal Harmonizers, Deshields Gospel Singers, Women in White, and the Jackson Jubilee Singers. Tish enjoyed her relationship and musical exchanges with her church family at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Oxford, Maryland. She was also a founding Maryland family member at the Waters Edge Museum. She received high honors during her life for sharing her talents and service to the community. They include the Yolanda Pupo-Ortiz Award from at the Martin Luther King Jr. Symposium, the Service Award from the Talbot County NAACP, a Proclamation of the Commissioners of Oxford, a Governor's Citation from the State of Maryland, and a letter of recognition for civic service from President Barack Obama.

Grieving, but rejoicing in the privilege of her love are her daughter, Brenda Moaney Henry (James) of Easton, MD; Richard Moaney, Jr., (Shielgretta) of Greensboro, NC; grandchildren, Jeffrey Moaney, Demetric Moaney, Sr., Montrese Moaney, Garnell Henry, Jr., Dontae Henry, Tissier A. Moaney, Kendall Wilkerson, Shamicka Bailey, Jermel Bailey, Keith Wilson, Jr., Rikki

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
