RECESSIONAL

A DREAM.. NOVEMBER 13, 2023

I saw myself at church. A happy celebration was going on. All of a sudden people around me went and gathered chairs,
and set up a bunch of chairs in rows.
Someone came to me and told me to have a seat. Then said,
“Shawn is coming.”
I woke up!

Let Me Go

By Christina Georgina Rossetti

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Shawn Anthony Frederick

September 29, 1970

January 13, 2024

Shawn Anthony Frederick, 53 of Dorchester, Massachusetts passed away on January 13, 2024. Shawn was born on September 29, 1970, to Christina Banion and Elwood Booker.

At a very young age, Shawn had a zest for the outdoors. He would immerse himself in nature, all the while enjoying family camping trips, trail hikes or just lazing around the lake. He had a deep heartfelt delight in fishing. On an excursion to Barbados, he caught 12 kingfish. Shawn enjoyed all the ventures the outdoors provided, especially fishing.

Shawn worked at the Malden Department of Public Works. However, his greatest milestone was passing the Nace Inspector Exam. He became a certified Nace Inspector and worked at Gillette Stadium. He repainted the train track on Columbus Avenue, countless water tanks, and this was his BIGGEST pride. AT GILLETTE HE PAINTED IT!

Shawn was compassionate, fun-filled, special and witty. He leaves behind his mother, Christina Banion, his father, Elwood Booker, stepmother, Darnell Booker, stepfather, Keith E. Banion, aunt, Cheryl A. Frederick, former wife, Sharon Frederick, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

We will remember...

You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

[Psalm 16:11]

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

[Ecclesiastes 3:4]

We will always remember....
