Words of Appreciation

From the depths of our hearts, our family wishes to extend our immense gratitude to each and every one of you. Words cannot express how grateful we are for your sympathy and generosity. You have sustained us with your heartfelt prayers and words of comfort. Your unwavering kindness has been a comforting light, guiding us through this challenging time.

Your words of comfort have soothed our aching hearts and reminded us of the love that surrounds us. Your acts of generosity, whether gifts of time or talent, have been practical blessings that eased the burdens of this challenging time.

We are especially grateful to those who have stood by us, offering a listening ear, a shoulder to cry on, or a helping hand during this difficult time. Your presence and willingness to share our sorrow made a world of difference. We owe a debt of gratitude to each and every one of you who stepped forward with compassion and care.

May God bless each of you abundantly for the love, kindness, and compassion you have shown us. We pray that you may experience joy, peace, and love in equal measure.

With deepest gratitude and love,

THE FAMILY OF MRS. LUVERNE HILL

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS AND MINDS

ALWAYS REMEMBERED, NEVER FORGOTTEN

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF Luverne

Mrs. Luverne Hill, a beloved matriarch, was born on August 6, 1943, as the second of five children to the late Ordell and Ola Mae Sanders.

She received her education in the Peach County School System in Fort Valley, Georgia, proudly graduating from H. A. Hunt High School. Luverne dedicated many years of her life to serving the Peach County Board of Education, from which she later retired.

In a beautiful union, Luverne married Oscar Lee Hill, Jr., and together they welcomed three cherished children into the world. Luverne was preceded in death by her sister, Joyce Morris.

Luverne accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age, finding her spiritual home at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church. She later transitioned her membership to Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church, where she devoted herself to her faith and served on the Deacon Wives Ministry.

We are forever grateful for the invaluable blessing that Luverne brought into our lives. She was a radiant source of joy and laughter in the lives of those around her. Her hugs, smiles, and encouraging words were a testament to her boundless love.

Luverne's love for her family ran deep. There is no bond quite like the one she shared with her loved ones. She went above and beyond to ensure the well-being of her family. As a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished grandmother, nurturing great-grandmother, caring sister, and beloved aunt, she enveloped her loved ones with warmth and pride. Her unwavering faith, pure heart, and unforgettable smile will be deeply missed.

Luverne peacefully transitioned to her eternal rest on Wednesday, October 30, 2024, at the age of 81. We are forever grateful for the blessing that was her life.

She leaves behind a legacy of love that will forever resonate in the hearts of those she touched: husband of 61 years, Oscar Lee Hill, Jr.; three children, Sharon (Marvin) Walton, Tammie Hill, and Carol Hill Wolfork; one grandchild she raised as her own, Jacinta Hill; two sisters, Earnestine Sanders, Idella (Herman) Mathis; one brother, Ronnie (Sherry) Sanders; Grandchildren, Demetria (Willie) Ross, Jacinta Hill, Kiana Kegler, TeQuiera Wolfork, Tamiya Hill, Robin Hill, and Kallita Walton; Great grandchildren, Dallas Gooden, Austin Gooden, Caydence Scott and Houston Reeves; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

YOUR FINAL RESTING PLACE

Written by: Demetria Ross

We will never forget your smile, your touch, your love and care.
Even when you were not around your love would still be there.

As time went on
we all grew up and began to move away.
But we always came back gathered and continued to make memories
in our own special way.

We will always cherish
each special memory we have with you.
Memories for each and every day
will be the only thing to get us through.

Your legacy will live on because in our minds we will rewind
and never forget those very special and dear times.

We don't understand why you had to go away
but we know in our hearts God makes no mistakes
And you always prepared us for this very sad day.

When you crossed the victory line
and made it to your final resting place.

TRIBUTE FOR OUR

Luverne

A TRIBUTE TO A WIFE, MOTHER, GRANDMOTHER AND GREAT-GRANDMOTHER

Luverne was more than just a name; she was a beacon of love, kindness, and unwavering support. Her passing leaves a void that can never be filled, but her memory will forever warm our hearts.

As a passionate cook, she poured her heart and soul into every dish, sharing her love and culinary expertise with those she cherished. Her meals were more than just food; they were a labor of love.

She was a source of unconditional love, always giving and going the extra mile to ensure our well-being. Thank you for being such a special, loving, and caring presence and filling our lives with joy and laughter. Your hugs, smiles, and encouraging words made us feel deeply loved.

You possessed a heart of gold. Your selflessness shone brightly; you always put others before yourself. Devoted to your family and kind to everyone you met, you brought light to our lives.

We will forever cherish the moments we shared, from simple conversations to grand celebrations. Your love was a constant, steadfast presence in our lives. There is no love quite like yours—warm, comforting, and sweet.

You will be truly missed, but your spirit will live on in our hearts.
We will always love you. We will carry your love with us always.

Until we meet again, may you rest in eternal peace!

LUVERNE'S FAVORITE

Scripture

Psalm 23:1-4

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
