LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Howard King

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord. | Psalm 122:1

Howard King was born on October 22, 1943, to Sarah Fouche-King and Vivian Howard King, in Yazoo City, Mississippi. The only child born to Sarah and Vivian, he was their pride & joy. After living a life full of adventures, Howard departed this earthly realm December 18, 2025.

Howard was baptized at St. Stephen United Methodist Church at a young age. While growing up in Yazoo City, Howard was educated through Yazoo City Training School. Once he graduated high school, Howard headed to Tougaloo College, in Tougaloo, MS. After graduating with his bachelor's degree, Howard set a goal of becoming a Pharmacist. Howard chose Xavier University in New Orleans, Louisiana to further his education. Through diligence and perseverance, Howard's goal was achieved in 1969.

Howard was a proud member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. His brotherhood was invaluable to him. He remained active until the very end of his life.

Howard was a beloved Pharmacist. He deeply cared about the health of those he served. He was committed to his patients and staff, educating & counseling them on their medication needs.

Although Omega Psi Phi, Inc. was his pride and joy, Howard was also a member of several other organizations, including the National Association of Black Pharmacists, National Pharmaceutical Association, Xavier Alumni and Tougaloo Alumni.

Howard enjoyed traveling the world with colleagues and friends. He met many people throughout his travels. Many would become his life-long friends. He enjoyed laughing, telling jokes and meeting new people with similar interests.

As Howard's health began to decline, he decided to move closer to family. Howard returned to his home in Yazoo City, Mississippi, where he was attended to by his beloved cousin & friend, or "Niece", as he would affectionally call her, Precious Fouche-Banks and her daughter Cyl Nicole Banks. Howard was also grateful for the care and support he received from his church member, Ms. Myrtis Rucker.

Howard leaves to cherish his memory, his family, Precious Fouche-Banks, cousins, David Fouche (Burnette), Eugene Fouche (Nancy), and Cyl Nicole Banks, the members of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc, and numerous friends, colleagues, and travel buddies.

God Called You Home

God called you home, and we let go, Though our hearts were not prepared.

We trust His will, His perfect plan, And the promise that you're cared for. Your life was love, your legacy faith, Your example still shines through.

Until we meet in glory bright, We place our hope in Him – and you.

Love Your Family
