

A Child's Prayer

Heavenly Father, are you really there?
And do you hear and answer ev'ry child's prayer?
Some say that heaven is far away,
But I feel it close around me as I pray.
Heavenly Father, I remember now
Something that Jesus told disciples long ago:
"Suffer the children to come to me."
Father, in prayer I'm coming now to thee.

Pray, he is there;
Speak, he is list'ning.
You are his child;
His love now surrounds you.
He hears your prayer;
He loves the children.

Of such is the kingdom, the kingdom of heav'n.

*A life well lived doesn't end any more than music ends...
It echoes through time with whispers of beauty and grace...*

*If we listen, we can hear the encore with our hearts,
For the song plays on, just as love lives on.*

Rudd FUNERAL HOME

In Loving Memory

Kay Lynn Ratcliffe Schick
August 11, 1963 – September 12, 2025

Kay Lynn Ratcliffe Schick, aged 62, peacefully passed away on September 12, 2025, in Elwood Utah after courageously fighting with many health issues. She was born on August 11, 1963, in Ogden, Utah, to Ronald and Marilyn Ratcliffe.

On December 15, 1990, Kay Lynn united in marriage with Jeff Schick in Ogden, Utah, sharing a life filled with love and cherished memories. Throughout her life, she lived in various communities including Ogden, Uintah, Kaysville, and Elwood, Utah.

Kay Lynn was dedicated to her education, completing her studies at Bonneville High School, followed by earning a Bachelor of Education from Weber State University in 1990, and a Master of Education from Utah State University in 2006. She devoted her career to teaching in elementary schools, handling 1st and 2nd grades at Westland Elementary in West Jordan from 1990 to 2000, and at Kaysville Elementary from 2000 to 2006. During her teaching career, she positively impacted the lives of many children. Afterward, she served as a school technology specialist for the Davis County School District from 2006 until her retirement in 2019.

In her free time, Kay Lynn cherished moments spent with her family. Her passions included cross-stitching, tole painting, crocheting, music, and reading. As a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she served in numerous callings such as Stake Primary, Primary chorister, Primary teacher, and Young Women's leader.

Kay Lynn is survived by her loving husband, Jeff Schick; her children, David (Whitney) Schick and Sierra Schick; her mother-in-law, Karren Schick; and her siblings, Teresa (Brandt) Peterson, Mike (Lori) Ratcliffe, Heather (Todd) Johnson, and Josh (Beth) Ratcliffe; in-laws Scott (Kjerstin) Schick, Daranee (Schick) and Dusty Berg, Alison Schick and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ron and Marilyn Ratcliffe; her sister, Laurie Rampton; and her father-in-law, Seth Schick.

Her spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
