

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Dolores Jean Stockstill

Dolores "Dee" Jean Stockstill, 85, of Sedalia, passed away on Saturday, July 20, 2024, at Bothwell Regional Health Center in Sedalia. She was born on February 13, 1939, in Sedalia, the daughter of Albert Dillon and Lillian (Hohimer) Dillon, who preceded her in death.

On February 15, 1958, in Sedalia, MO, she was united in marriage to Charles Thomas Stockstill Sr., who preceded her in death on May 2, 2018.

Dee was a 1957 graduate of Smith-Cotton High School. She and her husband Charles opened the Main Street Bar and later the Pacific Bar and Cafe in Sedalia. In 1973, along with her husband, they started Chuck and Dee's at the Missouri State Fair, which still exists after 51 years. Dee was also a proprietor of the Cheese Board Deli, along with her two sons and husband. Dee loved traveling with her husband to watch her children and grandchildren play sports. She enjoyed going to the River Boat Casino and Las Vegas, playing cards, bowling, and tending to her many different animals. Dee was very instrumental in the upbringing of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Dee especially loved spending time with family and friends at Chuck and Dee's at the Missouri State Fair, where she was most known as "Mama Dee."

Survivors include two grandchildren, Rachel Thomas (Doug) of Sedalia and Mathew Charles Stockstill (Jenny) of Oregon; three great-granddaughters, Kylie Jo Moreno, Kaitlyn Lillian Moreno, and Kelsey Cardin Thomas; and a nephew, Jason Hammond.

In addition to her husband and parents, Dee was preceded in death by two sons, Charles Stockstill, Jr., and Mark Stockstill; a sister, Pamela Hammond.
