

Trees

by Joyce Kilmer

A favorite piano piece Darlene learned as a teenager & played often.

"Grandma" requested Grandson play at her Funeral Service.

She liked to recite the memorized lyrics too.

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in Summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

Somewhere My Love

by Paul Francis Webster

Dedicated to Darlene from Floyd

Somewhere my love, there will be songs to sing
Although the snow covers the hope of spring
Somewhere a hill blossoms in green and gold
And there are dreams ~ all that your heart can hold

Someday ~ we'll meet again my love
Someday ~ whenever the spring breaks through You'll come to me out of the long ago
Warm as the wind, soft as the kiss of snow

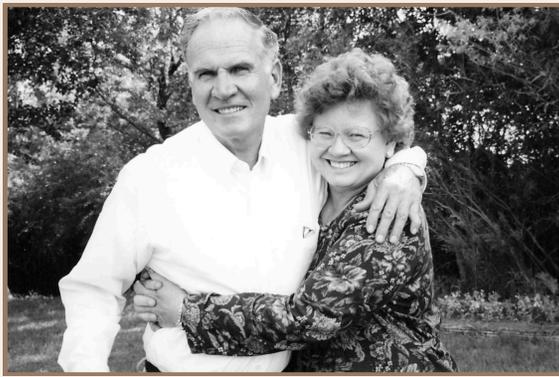

Think of me now and then
God speed my love, 'til you are mine again
Till then my sweet think of me now and then
God speed my love 'til you are mine again

IN LOVING MEMORY
