

Fallen Limb

Author Unknown

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me".
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.*

*Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.*

*Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes, we're together again*

Acknowledgement

On behalf of the entire Jenkins Family, we express our heartfelt appreciation for your prayers, calls, visits, words of encouragement, and every expression of love and kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement. Your support has brought our family comfort and strength, and we are truly grateful. May the Lord Jesus Christ richly reward your kindness with His abundant grace, peace, and blessings.

Her Faith Fulfilled

*She walked by faith through every passing year,
A gentle voice, a steady, guiding light.
She dried our tears and calmed our every fear,
And walked with God in truth and quiet might.
Her hands were strong in service and in love,
Her heart a home of grace and endless prayer.
Now she rests safe within the arms above,
In glory where the saints and angels share.
We do not weep as those who have no hope,
For she has reached the home she longed to see.
Though shadows fall and heavy sorrows cope,
Her soul is safe, rejoicing and set free.
Well-done, good and faithful servant.*

The Life Journey of Mother Margaret Jenkins

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: II Timothy 4:7

Mother Margaret Jenkins, 84, of Savannah, GA, was born on September 22, 1941, in Girard, GA. She was the daughter of the Late Horace Manor and the Late Ola Mae Curry.

Mother Margaret graduated from Central High School in Sylvania, Georgia, and furthered her education at Savannah Technical Institute, where she earned her certification as a Nursing Assistant. She devoted many years to raising and caring for her family as a stay-at-home mother before pursuing her career in the medical field, a profession in which she faithfully served for more than 20 years.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Elder Freeman Jenkins, Sr., in 1963. Together, they raised eight children and built a loving family grounded in faith and devotion. Mother Jenkins was a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished sister, beloved family member, and treasured friend to so many. Her life was characterized by love, compassion, dedication, and selfless service to her family and others, leaving a lasting legacy in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

In 1971, at the age of 28, Mother Jenkins gave her life to the Lord and received the baptism of the Holy Ghost under the leadership of the late Elder Paul Stevens. This life-changing experience marked the beginning of a profound, unwavering commitment to God that guided her throughout the rest of her life. From that moment forward, she faithfully served the Lord wherever she was needed, always demonstrating a willing spirit, a humble heart, and a genuine love for God and His people.

Mother Jenkins faithfully served as former First Lady of the Garden City Church of Christ Holiness unto the Lord (CCHL), the Beaufort, South Carolina CCHL, the Daniel Siding CCHL Mission, and, most recently, the East Savannah CCHL. In addition to her service as First Lady, she served diligently as Sunday School Superintendent and was a devoted member of the Mothers' Board, Prayer Ministry, Women in Ministry, and Church Leadership Council. In every position she held, Mother Jenkins served with grace, wisdom, dedication, and a servant's heart. She truly relished serving the Lord and being in the house of God. Her faith shone through her words, her actions, and the love she extended to those around her. She possessed a gentle yet remarkably strong spirit, and her presence brought comfort, encouragement, and warmth to many. Her smile was contagious and pure, reflecting the joy and love in her heart. Her life was a beautiful testimony of faithfulness, humility, service, and total devotion to God—a legacy that will continue to inspire and bless generations to come.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Elder Freeman Jenkins Sr., of 58 years, and their son, Freeman Jenkins Jr.

Mother Margaret Jenkins leaves to cherish her loving memories her children, Colonel Christopher (Felicia) Jenkins Sr., of Peachtree City, GA, Carol (Calvin Jr.) Brown of Riviera Beach, FL, Sandra (Leroy Jr.) Porter of Villa Rica, GA, Harold (Keiona) Jenkins Sr. of Savannah, GA, Van Eric (Arlena) Jenkins of McDonough, GA, Andrea (Kenneth) Murray of Carrollton, GA and Jenae (Kalina) Jenkins of Lithia Springs, GA; 16 grandchildren, 13 great grand-children. Mother Margaret Jenkins is also survived by her sister, Rosa Roberts of Pooler, GA;; Sisters-in-Law, Grace Jenkins and Maxine Jenkins, both of Philadelphia, PA, Portia Jenkins of White Plains, MD, Debra Jenkins and Betty Jenkins both of Savannah, GA; and a host of other relatives including cousins, nieces and nephews.
