Acknowledgements

We, the family of the late Mahkel Lamount Collins lost a little precious son, brother, grandson, and friend who can never be replaced. During the past few days following the passing of Mahkel, we have felt so blessed with the outpouring of love and support.

It is during these times that we see how fortunate we are to have such a loving family and wonderful friends.

Please know that your outpour of love by calls, visits, food, cards, and other means are greatly appreciated.
May God Bless each of you.

Life Reflections

Precious Mahkel Lamount Collins, was born January 8, 2019, to Nakeyia Danyell Easley and Marquis Lamount Collins. Mahkel gained his angel wings on February 10, 2025, in Chicago, Illinois. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Andre Coleman.

Mahkel was a Kindergartener at Caywood Elementary School. He was the light of the classroom and was the most precious student. He loved playing basketball at Caywood. He also loved Takis, KitKats, and Lucas and Marcus – YouTube were his favorite.

Our Precious Boy

*Our precious boy, now gone too soon
Your brief life, a flickering candle
That lit our world before being snuffed out
Leaving us in darkness and grief
We cling to memories like lifelines-
Your sweet smile, your joyful laugh-
Etched on our hearts forever.
Filling the vacuum of loss.
Our beautiful son, though far from sight
Your spirit lives within our sorrow.
Turning grief's bitter cup to wine,
Reminding us-
Love is stronger than death life,
Legacies matter more than the length of days,
So We'll carry your memory always, our boy
Letting your brief light
Continue shining within us,
Guiding us home.*
