HIS STORY

Demarco Leanell Herron was born April 27, 1987, in Okmulgee, Oklahoma, to Terri Harris his mother and Erik Felix his father.

At 6 months old he relocated to Atlanta, Georgia, with his mother where he attended a special needs school until he graduated at the age of 21. Demarco has 2 living brother's; Damon Duncan Jr and Isiah Harris. His two sisters are Imani Harris and Danyal Green. His maternal grandmother Frances Wise resides in Fayetteville, NC. Along with two aunts Benita Herron and Joyce Herron. He has numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Demarco was a joy to be around, he had a contagious smile that would fill your heart with joy. He enjoyed receiving lots of love and kisses. Riding in the car listening to music and watching his favorite show Bluey on TV. was a joy for him. If you had good food and something sweet to eat he was the happiest ever. If he didn't care for something he had his own special way of letting you know. Most of all he was a happy and a joyful young man with the biggest smile. He captured the hearts of many that came into contact with him especially his two bonus dad's Quentin Harris and Waylon Melton. He also had two special ladies in his life Ms. Pam and Katie. He was truly loved and will be missed greatly.
