I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm Free
I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Task left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life been full, i savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.

ALBERT

THE MEASURE OF A MAN

Albert Fuqua was born on March 12, 1942, in Bentonia, Mississippi, to the late Eddie Fuqua and Louise Barnett Fuqua of Yazoo County. Raised in a loving household rooted in faith and community, Albert carried the warmth, strength, and integrity of his Mississippi heritage throughout his life. A dedicated farmer who lived in Holly Bluff and later moved back to his first roots Bentonia, MS. He truly loved being outdoors, he found deep joy in working the land, planting his garden, working on lawnmowers, handiwork and embracing nature. Along his journey, Albert met the love of his life, Eva Jennifer Collums, with whom he built a beautiful life.

On August 6, 2026, he peacefully transitioned from his earthly journey to his eternal resting place.

RECESSIONAL

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous, shall give me at that day: and not to me only; but unto all them also that love his appearing. 2 Timothy 4:7-8

From Your Grandchildren

Your love remains with us, for love itself lives on. Cherished memories never fade because a loved one is gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought apart, for as long as there are memories, you will live in our hearts.

With love your children and Your Grandchildren,
Angela, Patricia, Amanso
Shequita, Tenisha, Kiara, Michael, Daryl, Jody

God Saw the Road

God saw it was getting rough, The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered, ‘Peace Be Thine.” The weary Hours, The days of pain, The sleepless nights are post, the ever patient, worn-out frame.
Has found sweet rest at last
Dear Albert, your love for family was unconditional and matchless. You loved family gathering.you loved the joy of your nieces and nephews. You loved life and often spoke of eternity. God called you for your rest. We must accept that God knows best.
Love,
Eva Jennifer Collum
