

God saw that you were getting tired and a cure was not to be, so
He put His arms around you and whispered,
"Come to Me." With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating;
Hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Cheryl Ann Rawdon, beloved mother, sister, and cherished educator, peacefully passed away on December 19, 2025, at the age of 68. Born on June 13, 1957, in Dallas, Texas, she spent her life dedicated to teaching and nurturing those around her, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of her students and colleagues at Winnsboro Independent School District.

Cheryl devoted 31 years of her life to the field of education, inspiring young minds with her passion for learning and her unwavering support. Even after her retirement, her love for teaching continued as she served as a substitute teacher for an additional 10 years, remaining a beloved figure in the community.

Beyond her commitment to education, Cheryl was a warm and caring mother to her daughter, Meagan Howard, and a doting grandmother to her two grandchildren, Jacorria and Tristian Howard. She found joy in the simple pleasures of life-reading, writing, and knitting. In fact, she was working on a children's book at the time of her illness, showcasing her creativity and love for storytelling. Cheryl was also a devoted companion to her beloved cat, Tedi, who brought her comfort and joy.

Cheryl is survived by her daughter Meagan, her brother Bill Rawdon, and her grandchildren, Jacorria, Tristian, and Trishelle. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her, remembered for her kindness, wisdom, and her joyful spirit.

Cheryl was preceded in death by her parents, Billy Rawdon and Carol Rawdon and her beloved son-in-law, Tarrell Howard.

As we gather to honor Cheryl's life, let us cherish the memories we created with her, hold her spirit in our hearts, and acknowledge the profound impact she had on all of our lives.
