The Obituary

Julia Jean Hines Moses was born on December 25, 1945, in Greensboro, North Carolina to Jennie Eliza Hines and Leon Carlos. She passed away on Saturday, July 4, 2026, at her home in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

For over fifty years, she was a faithful member of Morning Star Missionary Baptist Church. In her earlier years she served on the Spiritual and Mass Choirs and with The Missionary Ministry. Outside of her home, she worked many years as a nanny, housekeeper, and caregiver.

Julia was preceded in death by: her devoted and loving husband, Edward Lee Moses Sr., her parents, Johnsie Saunders, Jennie Eliza Hines, Leon Carlos and her child, Perry Moses.

She leaves to cherish her memory: 6 children, a devoted and loving daughter, Janice Hines, a devoted and loving son, Edward Moses Jr., Kenny Moses, Brian Moses, Terry "Little Bit" Moses, and Sandra Moses; grandchildren, two devoted and loving granddaughters, DeAndra Moses and Shorovia Williams, Erica Adamson, Shermaine "Cortez" Moses, Paris Moses, Casja Moses; great-grandchildren: Demetrius, Tyshaun, Deniyjah, Brianna, Nevaeh, Caiden, Aubre, and Gianni; siblings: a devoted and loving sister, Debbie Hines, and brother, Howard Motley. She was close to her devoted relatives: aunt, Geraldine Hines; cousins, Mattie Young; niece, Tosha Stuckey; and brothers-in-law, Samuel "Shot" Moses and James Moses. Julia cherished her support from Trustee Ernest Salley, Trustee Robert Galloway, Constance "Kittie" Johnson, Deacon Carrie Robinson, Deaconess Alene Wilkins and many other loving church members who were always very helpful to her.
