Joshua Tree, how art thee, I like the way that you smile at me, are you a cactus, or are you a tree, you look like both, it seems like to me, the rain and the snow, wrecked havoc everywhere, even with mudslides you're still standing there, and just like that you speak to me, maybe it's through your DMT, or it's in my spirit, in it's sensitivity, oh look at your flowers, in their beauty, hey that's funny they smell like blue cheese, bet it makes a good salad for all the bees, I hope that you know you've inspired me, oh Joshua Tree, have a good day, there's a part of me that just wants to stay, but I must go it's been nice to know ya, because my heart is

Bryan Glenn Trapp passed away peacefully at home on Tuesday, March 21, 2023 at the age of 43. He was born June 8, 1979 in Atlanta, Texas to Terry Trapp and Sherrie (Jones) Nettles. He attended Earlsboro High School and completed truck driving school with his CDL and was currently working at Western Flyer Express. He had his CDL for over 17 years which supported his love for travel.

When Bryan became a father, his world changed. He loved watching his children grow and was proud of their accomplishments. He loved sharing the joys they brought him with his family and friends and was a favorite past time of his. Camping was something that he loved doing with Nevaeh and Logan. They spent many days in Sulphur at the Chickasha Nature Park hiking, fishing and making amazing memories.

Bryan loved sending videos of his travels to his family and friends, sharing his excitement and love of beautiful hills, snowy mountains, orange trees, almond trees and so much more. He loved sharing The Word of God with people and he was always willing to lend a helping hand to strangers.

Bryan is survived by his daughter, Nevaeh Michelle Trapp; son, Logan Blaine Trapp; faithful dog, Tater; father, Terry Trapp; mother, Sherrie Nettles and husband Bob Nettles; grandmother, Dessie Trapp; sisters, Jennifer Trapp, Amanda Molnar and husband Matt Molnar, and Shelly Nettles; brother, Craig Nettles; nephews, Quintin Trapp, Cory Nettles, and Anthony Nettles; nieces, Madelyn and Alivia Molnar, Megan Nettles, Chelsea Foster-Kinkle, Jesse Holman, Freya Nettles, and Shay Nettles; Aunts, Marilyn Miles, Linda King and husband Herbert, and Rubye Lovelace; Uncles, Bob Jones and wife Dottie, Richard Trapp, and Johnny Nettles; Great Aunt, Skip Blalock; as well as loved by many cousins and loyal friends.

Bryan was preceded in death by his grandfather, William Trapp; grandparents, D.B. and Eva Dean Jones and Arthur and Nellie Nettles; and brother, Bobby Jay Nettles, and Uncle Ted Jones.
