

Sister

If flowers grow in heaven
On land that's wild and free
Lord, place some in my sister's arms
And tell her they're from me
Please tell her that I love her
And miss her everyday
And tell her there's still so much
That I would like to say
Remembering her is easy
She's in everything I do
I miss her so much everyday
But I know she's safe with you
If tears could build a stairway
Made from all the pain
I'd walk right up to heaven
And bring her back again
Lord, please take care of her
And I hope that she will see
That she was such a special person
And a special sister to me.

Acknowledgements

The family of our beloved extends sincere and heartfelt gratitude for the outpouring of love, prayers, and support shown during our time of bereavement. Your comforting words, floral tributes, acts of kindness, visits, phone calls, and messages have provided strength and encouragement beyond measure. We pray that God will richly bless each of you and continue to keep you in His loving care.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE

Alisha
RENEE MACON

SEPTEMBER 6, 1985 — JUNE 26, 2026

HARRIS FUNERAL DIRECTORS
9722 E 16TH AVE, AURORA, CO 80010

Today, we gather to celebrate compassion, love, and living

Alisha was the kind woman who valued her quiet moments but never hesitated to share her warmth and love with those around her. She could be the life of the party at one moment or find comfort in just relaxing at home and watching movies. She believed in making the most of every moment, a belief perfectly captured by her favorite saying, "YOLO" (You Only Live Once).

Alisha was a devoted daughter to her parents, Ora J. Macon and James Brewer, who preceded her in death, and a loving sister to LaTonya Green. She was the glue that held her family together, a rock to her friends of more than 30 years, and a mentor to younger family members. In her journey to become a Sterile Processing Technician, she showed us all the meaning of dedication, resilience, and the power of a dream.

As we remember Alisha today, let us celebrate not only her accomplishments but also the love she freely shared, the friendships she cherished, and the countless lives she touched. Though her time with us was far too short, her legacy of loyalty, compassion, joy and laughter will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

*"God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can,
and the wisdom to know the difference."*

May we honor her memory by embracing life as she did—with love, laughter, courage, and gratitude. Her spirit will remain with us always, and her memory will be cherished forever.
