To My Mom from your Big Baby,

Obituary

It is with heavy hearts and deep love that we celebrate the life and cherish the memory of Rosa Arnetta Thaggard Robinson "Mama Rose"

Born September 29, 1950 in Cumberland County, Fayetteville, N.C. to the late Nazzareth Thaggard and Rosa Bell Carter.

She is proceeded in death by her daughter, Harriet Edwards; her sisters: Josephine Brown, Leslie Council, Lois Council, Etta Perscell, and Elvoir Fischer; her brothers: Pompie, Timothy, June, Andrew, Dillas, and Nathan Thaggard.

Mama Rose was a loving, generous, and strong woman whose heart extended beyond her family to her friends and community. She had a special way of giving to others; and making sure the people around her knew they were loved. Her kindness, generosity, and willingness to share were among the many qualities that made her special.

One of Mama Rose's greatest joys was cooking, spending quality time with those willing, and St. Stephen's Community House (aka The Center). The Center was the bedrock of her charity and communion with people of all walks of life. One of her famous quote's, "I am a human just as you, so who am I to judge!"

Rose was a woman who spoke her mind and stood firmly in her truth. She meant what she said, and said what she meant. She was not one to pacify her words, or pretend to be someone she was not. Her straightforward nature was a defining part of her personality. Most understood that you could always expect her to speak from the heart.

Her love was not limited to words. She showed it through her giving spirit, her care was fighting for the meek and underdogs for she knew they may need a little more encouragement. Regardless of race, religion, orientation Mama Rose had no room for judgment and that is why the masses embraced her. This is a legacy she left behind, not just for her kin, but all those she encountered.

Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find comfort in our Christian faith and in the promise of God's presence during our most difficult moments. Psalm 34:18 reminds us, "The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart." As we grieve her passing, may God surround her loved ones with strength, peace, and comfort.

We thank God for the blessing of having Mama Rose in our lives. Her love was her gift. Her honesty was her strength. Her family was her heart. Her generosity was her legacy.

Rest peacefully, Mama Rose. You were deeply loved, you will be forever cherished, and your memory will live in our hearts for generations to come.

Forever Loved. Forever Missed. Never Forgotten.

My Dedication to Mommy, by Pam Fells:

The strength of a matriarch lies notable not just in her authority, but the love, wisdom and compassion she weaves into the tapestry of her family.

Momma Rose aka Boss lady her legacy of giving and resilience was present until her call to glory.

Our hearts are full of joy as we remember the many opportunities and memories she created as an endearing wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend.

The dedication she had for her family she also extended that same passion and dedication to St. Stephens and the Linden Community.
