

A LIFE WELL LIVED

A LEGACY Remembered

Ms. Lousie Josephine Hightower, 81, of Hopkins, South Carolina was born on November 8, 1944. She entered eternal rest on Friday June 5, 2026 at Prisma Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina. She was one of nine children and the beloved daughter of Rufus Wilson and Viola Davis Wilson. Louise received her education in the public school system and was a graduate of Hopkins High School. At her core, Louise was a caring and nurturing individual who dedicated more than forty years of her life to home services, working faithfully as a housekeeper and caregiver.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Dennis and John, sisters; Florence, Viola, and Lottie along with her life partner, John Quincy Davis, Louise is survived by her three daughters, DeAnna (Jesse), April, and Edna (Anthony), cherished grandchildren; Samuel, Natalie, Jamilah (Caleb and Camile), LaAnna, Blake, Bryce, and Jace who were the joy of her life, siblings; Curtis (Betty), Rufus (Carletta), and Marsha Faye. Along with a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and dear friends, all of whom she loved deeply.

Dear Louise Josephine HIGHTOWER

I'm going to miss you, my big sister.

I appreciate all your love and kindness towards me
through this lifetime.

You were always willing to help and protect me when you could.

I will miss our weekly chats tremendously,
and how you prayed for the four siblings

left out of the nine.

You will always live in my heart.

I will never forget how you would say,

“I love you and take care of yourself”,

and I would say I love you too!

Forever,

Love Marsha Faye
