OBITUARY

Maple Walker, age 87. Sunrise October 2, 1938 and Sunset June 8, 2026.

Maple Walker peacefully departed this life on June 8, 2026. Born on October 2, 1938, in Jonestown, Mississippi, Maple was the beloved daughter of the late Neil and Aline Hudson. She was baptized at an early age and carried her faith, strength, and love for family throughout her life.

Maple was one of nine siblings. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Fred Hudson and Louis Hudson, and her sisters, Louise Lilly and Virginia Hudson. She leaves to cherish her memory four loving sisters: Ida Rawls, Novella Jackson, Aline Owens, and Bernice Washington.

A devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, Maple dedicated her life to her family. She was preceded in death by two sons, Robert C. Hudson (InSuk) and Darwin D. Hudson. She leaves behind three children: Rozell Hudson Sr. (Aneli), Richard D. Hudson, and Deidra M. Hudson.

Maple's legacy continues through her five grandchildren: Chanika S. Hudson, Perdesha Hudson-Sene (Bara), Rozell Hudson Jr., Charmaine Hudson, and Da'Vielle Hudson. She was also blessed with seven great-grandchildren—Alonna, Lelanna, Laila, Lamine, Lorenzo, Fynn, and Kayne—who lovingly knew her as "Granny Grand."

Maple cherished spending time with family and friends and was known for making everyone feel welcome. She had a special gift for giving friends funny nicknames that often lasted a lifetime. Her home and heart were always open, and she expressed her love through cooking. She was especially famous for her delicious potato salad, a staple at family gatherings and special occasions. And, of course, no family gathering would be complete without someone retelling the beloved story of Maple's famous sweet potato pie.

Throughout her life, Maple worked tirelessly to provide for her family, holding multiple jobs and demonstrating remarkable determination and resilience. She eventually retired from the Cleveland Heights Board of Education, where she was respected for her exceptional work ethic, dependability, and caring spirit.

Maple's life was a testament to perseverance, unconditional love, and devotion to family. Her kindness, wisdom, laughter, and generous heart touched countless lives. Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy will live on in the memories she created the values she instilled, and the love she shared with all who knew her.

Lovingly submitted by the family.

"Her life was a blessing, her memory a treasure. She is loved beyond words and missed beyond measure."
