Ramon “Mono” Angel Alfaro, 25, of Greeley, Colorado, passed away on Sunday, October 18, 2026.

He was born on May 15, 2001, in Greeley, Colorado, to Ramon Alfaro, Jr. and Celia A. Rojas. He attended Greeley schools through the 9th grade before entering the workforce. Over the years, he worked at Sam’s Club, Dollar Tree, and most recently, Front Range Roofing.

Ramon was the life of the party. He loved being around people, spending time with family and friends, and listening to music. He had a way of bringing light and laughter wherever he went, and he will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Ramon Alfaro, Sr. and Angel Rojas.

Ramon is survived by his parents, Ramon Alfaro, Jr. and Celia A. Rojas; his beloved daughter, Helena May Alfaro; his grandmothers, Petra Muniz Salcido and Vilma Alfaro; his siblings, Raul Rojas, Yukira Alfaro, Esmeralda Alfaro, Karen Alfaro, Andrew Alfaro, and Patricia Alfaro; his aunts and uncles, Alicia Alfaro, Frankie Alfaro, Victoria Alfaro, Angel Rojas, Sandra Rojas, Rosa De La Rosa, Carlos De La Rosa, Teresa De La Rosa, Daniel De La Rosa, Maggie Blanco, Gabriel Gomez, and David Blanco; as well as many cousins, friends, and extended family members.

So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice and no one will take away your joy.
