REMEMBERING

Mary V. Mayfield

‘Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness.’ Psalm 30:11

With profound sorrow and heartfelt gratitude for a life well lived, we announce the passing of Mary V. Mayfield, who peacefully made her transition on July 31, 2026, at the age of 68.

Mary was born on January 14, 1958, to the late Ida B. Price and Willie B. Harper. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, family member, and friend whose kindness and compassion touched everyone she met.

Introduced to christ at an early age, she was a member of Jerusalem M.B. Church where she served as choir member and usher. Mary had a heart for serving others. She loved to cook and found great joy in making sure no one went hungry. Whether someone needed a warm meal, clean clothes, a bath, or a safe place to stay, Mary welcomed them with open arms and an open heart. She never hesitated to help those in need.

Above all, Mary cherished her family. Her children & grandchildren were the light of her life. She loved them deeply, and they will forever carry her love and the precious memories they shared.

Mary's legacy of generosity, unconditional love, strength, and selfless service will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Though she will be deeply missed, her spirit will remain with us always.

Those left to cherish her precious memories include: her loving children, James Mayfield, Chiquita Montgomery, and Remontice Sims; her beloved daughter-in-law Jenelle Mayfield & grandson-in-law Javontavius Stewart; her five (5) beloved grandchildren, Daisha Jones, Charde Mayfield, Cerenti Montgomery, Jada Mayfield, and Janiyah Mayfield, who were the joy of her life; her brothers, Lee Willie Harper, William Harper, Daryl Harper, Kevin Forbes, one (1) sister Anita Harper; her favorite niece Lacandis Johnson along with a host of great grand children, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever cherish her love, kindness, and beautiful memories.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Ida B. Price and Willie B. Harper; her grandmother, Vertrine B. Morris; her beloved son, Joshua Mayfield; and her sister, Jo Carol Johnson.

ORDER OF SERVICE

*"Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your Lord."

Memories to Cherish

God Saw You Were Getting Tired
God saw you were getting tired,
and a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped His arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to Me."
You didn't deserve what you went through,
and so He gave you rest.
His garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.
And when we saw you sleeping,
so peaceful and free from pain,
we could not wish you back again
to suffer that way.
Your gentle hands and loving heart
will forever be in our memory.
Your kindness, love, and caring ways
will live on eternally.

Rest peacefully, Momma
~ Remontice, James, Chiquita

Though you rest among the stars, you are still the sun that shines on me, lighting my path with the love only a grandmother could give.
You'll forever be in our hearts
I'll love you always. ~ Charde

A grandmothers love never fades thank you for every hug every lesson and every moment of love. The memories we shared are treasures I'll carry forever,
though you're gone from my sight,
you'll never be gone from my heart.

Until we meet again. ~ Daisha

A pink sky, a gentle breeze, a ray of sunlight upon my face I will find you there. Heaven gained an angel, but I gained an eternal guardian. ~ Cerenti
