

To My Family, May I Go?

May I go now?
Don't you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to pain-filled days
And endless lonely nights.
I've lived my life and done my best,
An example tried to be.
So can I take this step beyond
And set my spirit free?
I didn't want to go at first,
I fought with all my might!
But somethings seems to draw me now
To a warm and loving light.
I want to go! I really do!
It's difficult to stay,
But I will try as best I can
To live just one more day
To give you time to care for me
And and share your love and fears,
I know you're sad and you are afraid
Because I see your tears,
I'll not be far,
I promise that,
And I hope you always know
That my spirit will be close to you
Whenever you may go.
Thank you for loving me.
You know I love you too.
That's why it's hard to say goodbye,
and end this life with you.
So hold me now, just one more time
And let me hear you say,
Because you care so much for me,
You'll let me go today.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired and a cure was Not to be
So he put his arms around you and Whispered,
"Come to Me "
With tearful eyes, we watched you
And saw you passed away
And although we love you dearly
We cannot make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest.
Call broken hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best

Love,
Kelvin Maurice Pitts

Obituary

Virginia Kate Carr was born August 23, 1940, in Talbotton Georgia she was the only child to the late Mattie M Bowman.

Virginia passed away at the home of Kelvin & Patty Pitts in Bulter County being cared for by family as she requested, we watched movies and listen to gospel music and various church services in her final days.

Virgina was educated in Talbot Georgia County public schools and graduated from Ruth Carther High School in 1959 after graduating she moved to Cincinnati Ohio to live with her mother Mattie.

Virginia worked various jobs before joining Cincinnati Bell Telephone Company where she spent most of her career until she retired in 1995. Virginia joined New Friendship Baptist Church in 1977 under the leadership of Dr. H.L Harvey where she was a faithful member, she served as a member of the nurse's guild, and vice president of The Willie Worker as treasure.

Virginia loved to sew, read, and garden, watching her tomatoes and peppers grow. This always brought her great joy. She loved to travel, and she done this with her special friend Clifford Searcy whom she met in Georgia when she was in kindergarten. They got together many years later and remained friends until her death.

Virginia is survived by her sons Kenneth Pitts, and Kelvin Pitts (Patty); grandchildren: Kelvin, Maurice Pitts, William Rouden, Lashawntay Rouden, Angelique Grafinreed; great-grandchildren, cousins, and friends.

Virgina's final days were just as she requested them to be at home with family being loved on and taken care of.

Don't

Don't spend too much time mourning tears are for the sad. I left to be with Jesus and that should make you glad. Don't waste you hours in grieving no need to feel distress. I'm tired of life's frustrations and had to have some rest. Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why. Life her for me was ended it came my time to die. Don't lose the love I gave you feed it with your care. Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere. Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way We'll have another meeting in God's Eternal Day!
