

Serenity Prayer

God, grant me the Serenity,
To accept the things, I cannot change,
The Courage to change the things I can,
And the Wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time,
Enjoying one moment at a time,
Accepting hardship as a pathway to peace;
Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is;
Not as I would have it;
Trusting that You will make all things right
If I surrender to Your will

So that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with You forever in the next!

Acknowledgement

We wish to thank our many family and friends for every expression of kindness extended to us at this time of sorrow. Your prayers, heartfelt sympathy, comforting words and thoughts, telephone calls, cards, floral arrangements, visits, and other acts of kindness have brought consolation to us. A special thank you to Sparrow Childrens Hospital, Motts Children Hospital, MD Anderson Hospital and the University of Michigan Hospital for their assistance.

Pray for us as we continue to pray for you!

Obituary

Armanii Victoria NyShy Pigg, was born on September 5, 2002, in Lansing, Michigan, to Amber Graham McKinney, and Luis Lopez. At an early age, Armanii was adopted by her great-great grandparents, Clifton & Annie Pigg. Armanii gained her wings on January 6, 2026. Her passing was after a well fought battle, but God saw she was getting weary and called her home. She was preceded in death by her great-great grandparents, Clifton & Annie Pigg; grandmother, Antigone Davis, great- grandfathers, Andrew Graham and Henry Brown, and one sister, Aeyonah Graham.

Armanii graduated from Waverly High School and started taking college classes until she begin her battle against a rare form of Leukemia in 2022. She was blessed with a son, Jamar Goings and was a very dedicated and loving mother. Armanii loved music and was an aspiring rapper. She was a fighter and an advocate using her YouTube platform to bring awareness to the challenges of Leukemia. She loved life and family and friends near and dear to her. Armanii recommitted her life to Christ and stood on his Word until she was called home.

Armanii leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Jamar Lavant “MarMar” Goings, her mother, Amber McKinney, father, Luis Lopez; two sisters, Kania McGhee, and one other sister, one brother, Amire “Debo” Rolland; great-grandmother, Clarice Brown; aunts, Audra Allen Brown, Armanda Brown, Aja Brown, and Alexis Brown; two uncles, Adrian Brown and Alexander Brown; great aunts, Angela Graham, Andrea Graham, and Lisa (Dee) Johnson, one great uncle, Anthony Graham; a host of cousins, family and friends. Special friends and family - Jaheim Glasscoe, Camarie Davis, Tiana Minor, Pedra Rush, Tayanna Rolland, Brandy Owens, Summer Owens, and Savanna Maldonado. Special prayers and thanks to MarMar’s paternal grandparents, Mr. Samarie and Mrs. Chalona Douglas.

This Cancer...

God, You see this cancer—every cell, every ache, every fear. Nothing in my body or my heart is hidden from You.

Some days I feel strong. Many days I feel exhausted, overwhelmed, or afraid. On the days I don't have faith or energy, please carry me anyway. I ask for healing, Lord—whether through medicine, doctors, rest, or miracles only You can provide.

Guide the hands and minds of everyone caring for me. Let my treatments work and my body respond. When pain comes, ease it. When fear rises, calm it. When my thoughts run ahead to “what if,” bring me back to this moment and remind me I am not alone. Give me peace in the waiting, hope when the road feels long, and rest when my body is worn down.

Hold my loved ones too—the ones who worry quietly and love me deeply. Give them strength, comfort, and peace. Even in this illness, help me feel Your presence— not just in healing, but in quiet moments, deep breaths, and unexpected comfort. I place my life, my body, and my future in Your hands. Today, I trust You with what I cannot control.

In Jesus name I pray Amen. You don't have to go through this alone. I'm here with you.

Amen

Armanii & Chalona

Memories

“Even though I am small, my mommy's love was big. She kept me safe, made me smile, and filled my world with love. She will always be my mommy. I will always love her.” - Hugs and Kisses forever - Mar Mar

Manii, I never expected this, Words can't explain how my heart feels. I've been there the whole step of the way. I watched a strong person get up every day and fight for their life. I watch you take care of a your son tired, stressed ,exhausted & all, you did everything you could to make your Son happy while going through your journey. You were determined to fight and that was so wonderful but it came with a lot pain, stress and a lot of emotions. But you fought through for yourself and for your son and thats so amazing. You were an AWESOME MOTHER & I'll make sure everybody knows that. I made a promise that I'm forever gonna KEEP. I got you & I got the God Kid Forever! I love you! My Daughter & Siblings love you! And we will never forget about you!!! - Love, Jahiem Glasscoe

Armanii my older cousin, you were an extra big sister to me every day I spent with you. No matter what, we always had the best times. Your name will forever live on with me. The role you played in my life no one can ever take that spot. These last three years we spent together I saw how strong you really were. I love you Armanii I'm glad that I got to be with you throughout your whole journey-
Love Always Jigga

Dear Manii-

My pretty Girllll!! I'm forever grateful for every memory we ever made together. Just being apart of your life was a blessing! You helped me through so many dark times in my life and taught me so many life lessons, your loyalty is unmatched, you always kept it solid! I'm truly sad I have to walk this road alone instead of side by side. Imma make sure I keep going and keep pushing cause even at your lowest you never gave up so why should I? You are one of the strongest women I know you're literally 1 of 1! I love you so much girl just come see about me <3 -
Love Tiana

Memories

Armani, you were more than a best friend to me you were my family. Writing this doesn't even seem right. I will forever miss being with you everyday dancing and laughing having a ball. I'll miss our daily calls to each other or just hopping on the road driving in the car, 13 hours away to take the boys to do something fun, while listening to music screaming the lyrics the whole way there. We always made the best memories for the boys you were the greatest mom to mar mar, and most amazing TT to Zy and the bestest friend I could ask for. You were irreplaceable and definitely one of kind in this unfair world. I'll always keep your memory alive I love you more than words can explain me and Zy will always miss you. Gone but never forgotten.

Love, Vannah

Armanii, you were my sister and my best friend. We shared our deepest secrets and went through so much together. Our bond was like no other—no judgment, just love. I was the shy one, and you were outgoing and outspoken. We balanced each other perfect. I'm going to miss you more than words can ever explain. I will think of you with every tear that falls and with every tear I wipe away when I begin to smile, remembering the moments we shared. Until I see you again, I love you.

Love always,

Summer

Your Sister, Your Best Friend

Letter to My Uncle Anthony

When I am gone, release me and let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that I have had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown. But now it is time for me to travel on alone.

So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must do. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It is only for a while that we must part. So bless those memories in your heart.

I will not be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near. If you listen with your heart, you will hear all my love around you soft and clear. And then when you must come this way alone, I will greet you with a smile and "welcome you home."

Love, Armanii
