

'I'm Free'

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me I took his hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the close of day If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief Lift up your heart, rejoice with me, God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Carolyn Joye Walker, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and sister, was born on November 4, 1945, and passed away peacefully on September 1, 2025, surrounded by loved ones. She shared 60 wonderful years of marriage with her beloved husband, Fred L. Walker, building a life filled with love, laughter, and countless cherished memories.

Carolyn is survived by her loving husband, Fred L. Walker; her cherished sister, Marcia (Wise) Durrah; and her two sons, Fred Walker II and Erik Walker. She was a proud grandmother to Jordan Walker, Gabrielle Walker, Nathan Walker, and Athena Walker, all of whom brought her endless joy.

Known for her warmth, generosity, and unwavering devotion to her family, Carolyn touched the lives of all who knew her. Her kindness and grace leave a lasting legacy that will continue to inspire those she leaves behind.

A private family service will be held to celebrate her life and honor her memory.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
