

In Loving Memory

*If tears could build a stairway
And memories a lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.*

*Our hearts still ache with sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to love you
No one will ever know.*

*But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.*

*Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.*

Noma Jenny Saylor was born April 9, 1933. Noma lived in the Menno vicinity on a farm with her parents, George and Erma Walker. Noma graduated from Menno High School in 1951. Noma married John Saylor on February 14, 1953. Noma and John (Jack) farmed east of Tripp. John also worked at Mitchell, SD in road construction. John retired when he turned 62 when they moved into town in Tripp, SD. Noma also worked part-time as a nurses-aide in Parkston hospital and later worked as a nurses-aide at Good Samaritan Home in Tripp, SD.

Noma was a kind, generous soul and enjoyed weekly ladies' coffee with her friends. She also had a few hobbies that included hand-stitched quilting and making artificial flowers. She thoughtfully made a hand quilted bedspread for each of her children and grandchildren. Noma also made a fantastic apple pie! Noma loved cooking for the family holiday gatherings and always was willing to open her house to family and friends.

Noma and John Saylor were members of Friedens Reformed Church in Tripp, SD for many years. She also served on the ladies' guild.

Noma was preceded in death by her parents, George and Erma Walker, her brother, Royce Walker, and twin sister Nona Herboldt and her husband John Saylor.

She is survived by her son, Roger Saylor, his wife Lynette Saylor, her daughter, Jeanice Raad, her husband Dewayne Raad, her grandchildren Demetria Glader, her husband Tate Glader, Alyssia Sturm, her husband Ryan Sturm, and Tyler Raad and her great-grandchildren, Aubrey Sturm, Natalie Sturm, Eli Glader, Lily Glader, and Oliver Raad.

Noma went to be with Jesus on February 1, 2026. She was deeply loved and will be missed but the memories of her love and thoughtfulness will live in our hearts forever.
