

Dad-Father

*Do you know our pain?
Do you know our hearts are breaking?
Our childhood years with fun and games.
Our adult lives sometimes brought pain.
You were there when you were needed.
Your love for us was all we needed.
Now you're gone and we're still here.
We'll miss you more each passing year.
Our hearts are heavy filled with pain.
Life will never be the same.
We saw a rainbow bright and clear.
We hope that means you're staying near.
If we could have just one more day.
We'd tell you all we didn't say.
We'd tell you how we love you dear.
And how we wish that you were here.
And when our saddest days are done.
One day we'll look and see the sun.
Maybe see a bright blue sky.
A river gently flowing by.
Thoughts of you will ease our pain.
we'll remember you and smile again.*

Remembering...

Joseph Phillip Plante, of Natoma, Kansas, passed away on January 17, 2026, at the Rooks County Health Center in Plainville, Kansas, at the age of 46.

He was born on March 28, 1979, in Plainville, Kansas, to Henry X. Plante and Janet Jo (Bear) Plante. Joseph attended school in Plainville and later began working in the oil field as a roughneck. He most recently was employed with Masters Oil Company as a maintenance and service manager.

Joseph lived life to the beat of his own drum. He was free-spirited, a night owl, and the kind of person who would rather ask for forgiveness than permission. Known for his generous heart, he would help anyone in need and truly would give the shirt off his own back. He loved fishing, camping, riding his motorcycle, working on cars, spending time with his dogs, and, most of all, being with his children.

He is survived by his father, Henry Plante of Plainville; his children, Jacquelyn and Cathryn Plante of Stockton, Kansas, Taegan and Karlee Plante of Hays, Kansas, Zayden Plante of Enid, Oklahoma, Alexis Monroe of Plainville, Riely Terry of Plainville, Bryle Ganoung of Goodland, Kansas, and Marcella Plante of Plainville; his brothers, Leon (Margaret) Plante, John (Marla) Plante, Francis (Sheila) Plante, Steve (Mary) Plante, Duane (Patricia) Plante, and Allen (Amy) Plante, all of Plainville; his brother-in-law, Patrick Gerstner of Arizona; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Janet Plante, and his sister, Mary (Plante) Gerstner.
